Trees are like students. Most of them have deep roots. Their branches may develop in different directions seeking the sun of knowledge. Some may reach great heights.

The theme of CAVALEON 1956 is trees.
We hope that our students, like great trees will remain always green at the top."

THIS IS OUR SCHOOL . . . CORAL GABLES SENIOR

HIGH SCHOOL

The vast sheltering tree of knowledge that is CORAL GABLES SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL had its root and its beginning at Ponce de Leon. There in 1926 Mr. Albert Isaac opened the doors of the first high school in Coral Gables, then surrounded by palm and palmetto.

Our own Mr. Rath became principal in 1932. Through his untiring and prodigious efforts the school grew from this small beginning to be ranked among the top scholastically in the state. So fast it grew, that it had to be transplanted in 1950 to a larger location at Bird and LeJeune Roads.

The school as we know it now is the fulfillment of Mr. Rath's dream. We are now popularly acclaimed THE SCHOOL OF DISTINCTION, a recognition difficult to live up to but one which we strive in every way to merit.

Coral Gables Senior High School has spread, on its 26 acre location, to include the academic buildings with five long wings, an auditorium, the cafeteria, and shops, a vast physical education plant and the several playing fields. Within our community, our 2,550 students and 125 faculty members work and play warmed by the Florida sun and shaded by the tropical trees.

Mr. Rath seen in the halls with members of the student body. Below, the "Dream" being held by Mr. Rath and Jon Gable. Looking on are Mr. Kotys and Ross Downing.

OUR MR. RATH

Principal since the old days at Ponce de Leon High School, Mr. Harry N. Rath is pretty great. Our school is the school he dreamed of before it was built. If the students are not those of his dream, it is our fault not his. We hope he will remember us with pride—for we have been proud of Mr. Rath and of Coral Gables Senior High School.

Another year has passed and many more honors are in our showcase. This has been a memorable year and one that we shall always remember. One of the dreams of our principal was to win the Big Ten Trophy. This year, with the help of our coach, Mr. Nicholas Kotys, and our football team his dream was realized.

DEANS OF OUR HIGH SCHOOL

Mrs. Louise Stewart is our new Dean of Girls. To this difficult and exacting job she brings interest and understanding as well as a keen sense of humor. She is always ready with advice and encouragement in any situation.

LOUISE STEWART—Dean of Girls

Our Dean of Boys, Mr. Edward Cook, is discerningly quiet and capable. If he is hard to amuse it is because he has heard so many stories from the boys that he knows all of the punch lines. Still he can solve any problem either school or extracurricular with kindly wisdom.

THE P.T.A. EXECUTIVE BOARD—Standing: Swanson, Criswell, Gilbert, Roerig, Greene, Gaskin, Leonardy, Johnston, Rosasco, Wilson, Gogburn, Roberts, Hall, Scheffsky, Yurko, Jarvis, Powers, Park, Williams, Webb, Drexel, Airth, Halliburton, Justin, Lutton, Dolbeer, Strain, Wynne, Lomax, Christiansen. Seated: Huggins, Crawford, Stewart, Rath, Cook, Parson, and Marion.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council maintains a firm student government. President Cary Findlay stressed school spirit throughout football season with enthusiastic pep assemblies, school colors and topped off with the largest Homecoming Week ever seen at Gables High. President Bill Heaton got off to a flying start advertising spring sports and promoting other student activities. Another major aim of the Council this year has been the betterment of the school campus with the faculty and students working harmoniously.

The governing body of the Senior Class assist their President, Chuck Thagard. Sitting: Rosremary Laney, Sonia Stohr, Almalee Cartee, Barbara Hamlet, Laura Kavaliar, Sue Leiser, Bunny Cefelu, Charlotte Stoker, Sharon Hogue. Standing: Ann Ashworth, Gene Casy, Dick Dennis, Mark Saber, Jerome Sthal, Jim Proud, Alec Woodhull, Ross Berkowitz, Council Kelly, Judy Victor, and President Chuck Thagard.

The Junior Board is in charge of singing telegrams, King and Queen of Hearts dance and the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Sitting: President Jim Crowder, Judy Hohman, Carla Stewart, Bonnie Rider, Robin McClohn, Marth NeSmith, Kay Kessel. Standing: Fran Hison, Al Capp, Bruce DeMartino, David Ricarderson, Peter Linkeroum, Freda Coffing, Mary McMaster, Irma Behnke, Ann Bradford, Vernice Veber, Grace Hawthorne, Marian Garty, Steve Dunlap.

PERMEATES RANKS

Purpose of Inter-Service Club Council is to maintain harmony and better relations among Service Clubs. Seated: Bill Sutton, Sue Hays, Margot Reitz, Ellen Taaffe, Lydia Swearingen, Ann Ashworth, Eleanor German. Standing: John Wilkatis, Eleanor Cain, Glen McNew, Bill Pennel, Carol Ann Noggle, Mike Bronzine.

Each club on campus is represented by its president in the Inter-Club Council to solve the many problems that arise in the school. Officers: Secretary, Beth McDonald; President, Buddy Woods; Secretary, Eleanor German. Seated: Pat Kilgard, Pat Haggard, Judy Kotys, Lydia Swearingen, Sue Hays, Anne Jensen, Carol Ann Noggle, and Jean Amidon. Standing: Eleanor Cain, Amelia Ivanhoff, Carole Mann, Scott McDonald, Bob Reno, Ted Seifert, Glenn McNew, Jim Meyer, Mike Bronzine, Allan Metzger, Floyd Rosen, Jim Lowry, John Hendry, Jim Crowder,

STUDENT COUNCIL

The enormous job of governing our student body has been designated to our Student Council. This organization is composed of the president of each homeroom, the presidents of all the classes, the appointed cabinet, and the members of inter-club council. Its objective is to efficiently plan, direct, and promote the activities of the school.

Right: Student Council meeting discusses the school's old and new problems.

JANET GALBREATH—Editor-in-Chief

Jan fits a phone call into her busy schedule.

"Zees office ez private??" If you trace the shouts which echo through our halls down to 508, you will find Jan, our harassed editor, and faculty advisor Steers, muttering some whim about meeting a deadline. Soph editors, Marian Garty and Ginger Nadell, still don't know the alphabet. Carol Harding edits our "secret" superlatives, while Gail Arner pushes promotion. "Not another club!" wails Beth McDonald. Ann Jensen copes with senior biographies. "Juniors are all horrible green-eyed monsters!" wail LuAnn Jones and Leeanne Kramer. Industrious Almalee manages school life, while Gene Casey, Kirk Callahan, and Barbara Hamlet handle sports. Responsible for the dreams of the staff becoming reality are ad managers, Dianne Saunders and John Gentry.

These are but a few of the people behind the yearbook. They have all fussed, fumed, and frantically worked to bring you an unforgettable book. Here it is—as you have lived it—Cavaleon 1956.

HIGH LIGHTS

"To the printers!" So goes the battle cry of a frantic High Lights staff. From nine to four each day, the fight against deadlines never ceases. "Scoop" has his own bi-weekly clash over ads with Carolyn Criswell. Betty Ann Cooke tears her hair over "publicity-happy" clubs. Feature editors, Annette Crofton, Cynthia Pangia, and Sallie Creel, spend most of their time on bended knee, begging for FUNNY features! Phantom Stroller copy appears mysteriously under the door, and they breathe a sigh of relief. "Where's the photographer?" wail Carole Mann and Peggy Borman. Headlines are Waterloo for Linda Williams. North-East-West-South, Tommy Morris and Pat Ussery comb the school for news. Tears are shed and 508 is always good for happy (?) little heated arguments between staff members. Still they wouldn't trade jobs for the world. Their reward comes in the creation of a new and better publication with each edition. To the "newspaper-struck" the High Lights is a human organism—an immortal, living record of the achievements of you, the students.

STUDENT HANDBOOK chairman, Janet Smith (center), is rushed with last minute copy from her committee: Gayle Barratt, Bruce DeMartino, Ricky Hart, Sue Leiser, Faculty Advisor Mr. Jim Corcoran, Peter Linkroum, and Doug Jones. The handbook is published bi-annually by student council as a free service to new students.

Discussing make-up for the next issue are HIGH LIGHTS editors-in-chief, Joann Woltz and Gene Casey. These are the guiding hands that prod the paper into shape. They are responsible for all which is printed and must see that all page editors meet the deadline.

Hi-Y members: David Hall, George Rowe, Charles Eikenberry, Lynn Grantham, Gordon McComb, Roy Rohe, and Dennis Swigert force the sale of their STUDENT DIRECTORY on Sarah Dunn and Barbara Williams. The directory is an annual project of this Hi-Y chapter. Funds are used to support the club in its service to the school.

Main cogs in the publication of our calendar are: Mr. W. K. Dickson, sponsor; Teddy DePeugh, editor; and Bob Reno, manager.

CALENDAR

Sponsored by the National Forensic League, the calendar is an annual publication. Calendar girls are selected by the student body. Funds are used to send members to district, state, and national contests.

To Coach Nicholas Kotys, the inimitable, indomitable, the one and only, we dedicate CAVALEON 1956. For his inspired coaching, his great enthusiasm and splendid school spirit, we think he is tops. His sportsmanlike conduct on the football field and his uninhibited cheerleading at the pep assemblies will linger with us as priceless memories. The fact that Coral Gables has come of age in football is due in great part to Nick Kotys—including winning the Big Ten Trophy.

Those extra points can mean all the difference.

The Cavaliers opened the '55 season with a green backfield and an untried line. Seasoned by victories over South Dade (47-0) and North Miami (31-7) Gables came up to the Miami High game with enthusiasm. The Stingarees, however, were out to avenge last year's tie and scored twice while holding Gables scoreless (0-12). The Lakeland Terriers were responsible for our only other defeat in a close hard-fought contest at Lakeland (12-13).

Defying tradition, Gables then beat Edison in a stunning upset (13-12), the first time in school history. A victory over Daytona Mainland (48-0) advanced Gables on their way toward a Big Ten Championship. Orlando Edgewater proved tougher (6-0), holding the visiting Cavaliers to a scoreless tie until Harrison hit for six in the closing moments of the last period.

On the road Gables overpowered Hillsborough (36-7) and Fort Lauderdale (26-6). In the last game of the season with Jackson High the Cavaliers clinched a tie for the Big Ten Championship by routing the Generals 28-7.

Posting five wins in conference play, Coral Gables shared the co-championship in the Big Ten Conference with Jacksonville Landon.

Fordyce and Pennel silence an Edison threat early in the second quarter in a key play leading to a sensational victory: Gables 13—Edison 12 in the Orange Bowl October 14.

TWENTY-THREE SENIORS, stalwarts of the 1955 edition of the Cavalier football team, formed the backbone of this great squad. Working hard for four years they finally saw their dream fulfilled as they won the Big Ten Championship.

Our Peppy Cheerleaders Sparked Our Teams to Victory

These cheerleaders have done a sparkling job of supporting school spirit and encouraging our teams on to victory.

Fired-Up Cavalier Cagers Finish Fast to Wind Up

Starting with number 12 clockwise: Bob Leidy, Brooks Henderson, John Slaton, Ted Cinski, Arden Calloway, Murray Elowitz, Bob Clouse, Dennis Dickey, Denny Kline, Ronnie Vara, Alvin Norman, and Charles Cook.

Beginning the season with only four returning lettermen, Brooks Henderson, Bob Leidy, Murray Elowitz, and Denny Kline, Coach Ed Stoeckel boosted our Cavalier cagers to a winning season to defy the dopesters. Winning thirteen and dropping seven the Cavaliers proved to be one of the strongest teams in the area. Led by the high scoring of Brooks Henderson, the height of Bob Leidy, and the expert ball handling of Denny Kline, the Cavaliers went on to post victories over Jackson, and Edison, while placing second in the district tournament.

Hard Fighting Cavs Finish High in State Tournament

Landry, Dickey, and Norman out-leap Edison defenders in an effort to sink a rebound.

Arden Callaway fakes out an Edison guard and drives in to score two points for Gables.

Gables' Diamond Demons Overpower City Foes

Hurlers Charlie Landau, Tommy Atwood, Ronnie Vara, and Chuck Zito warm up before meeting opposing batters in crucial game.

Catcher Walt Ostrowitz tensely awaits pitch as veteran outfielder Dick Dennis begins his swing.

Coach Joe Krutulis briefs some of his returning lettermen on bunting during pre-game warmups.

Paced by Great Hitting, Fine Fielding and Superb

Kneeling: Thagard, Cook, Henderson, Slaton, Vara, Atwood, Dennis, Zito, Stahl. Standing: Harrison, Stefan, Hager, DeMello, Wooldrige, Williamson Ross Landau Ostrowitz, Coach Krutulis Kopelman.

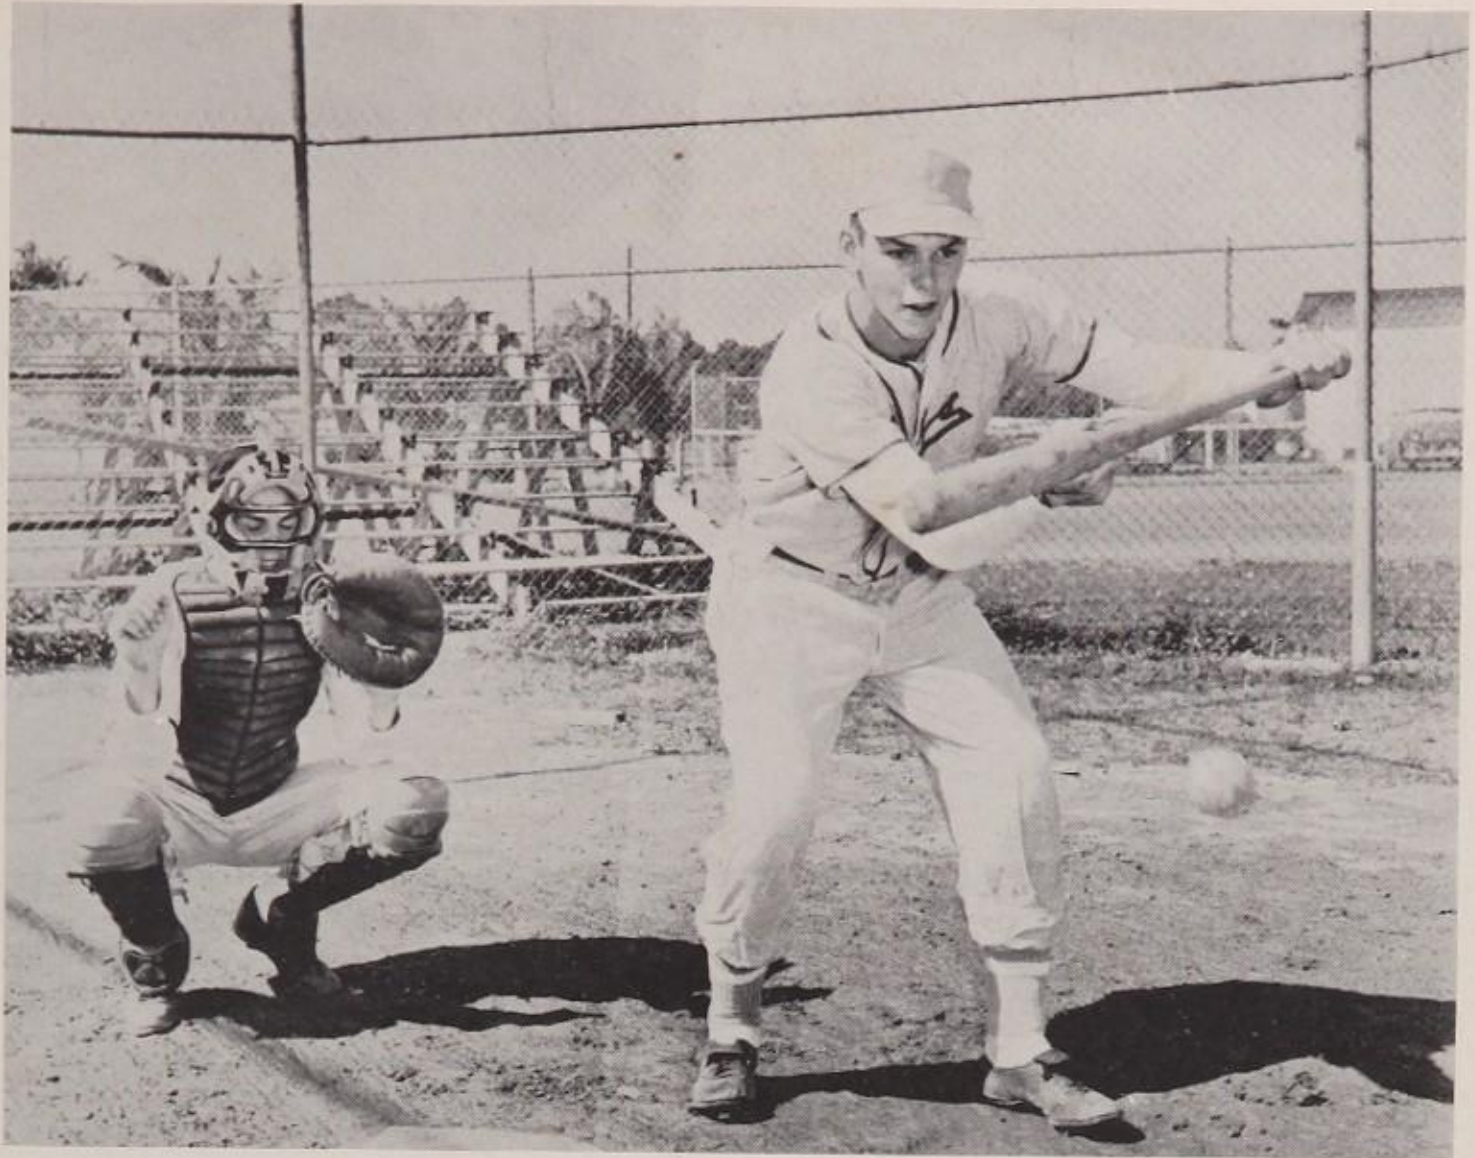

Jack Ross and Billy Williamson catch Walt Ostrowitz in a run-down during an inter-squad game.

Charlie Cook and Brooks Henderson discuss game strategy.

Outfielder Mike Harrison places a bunt down the third base line.

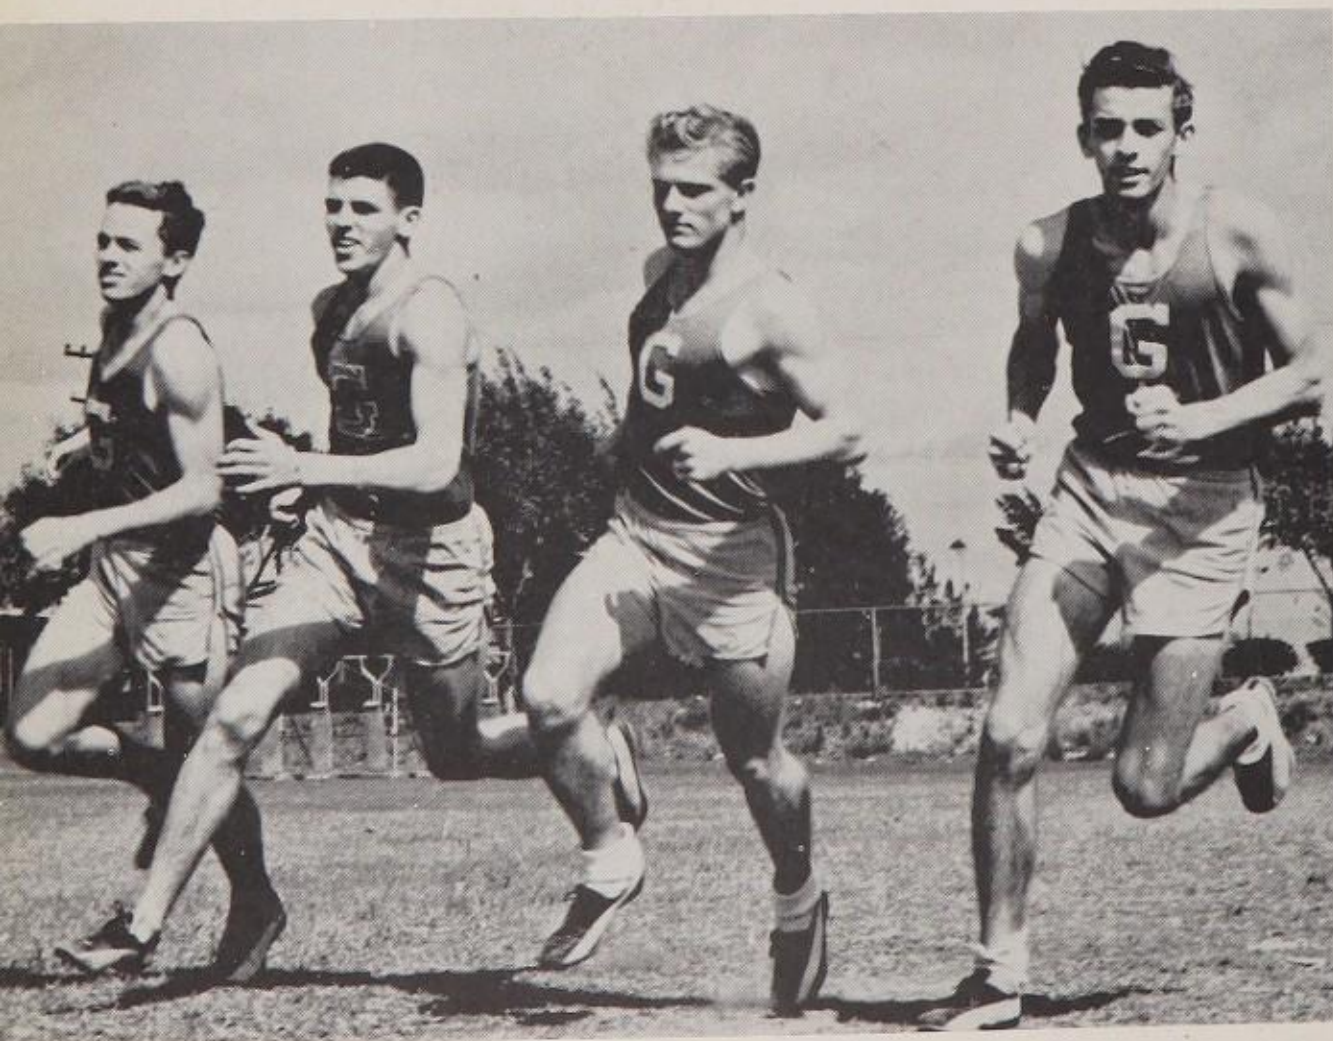

John Slaton snags a peg from first to force Mickey Stefan out at second base.

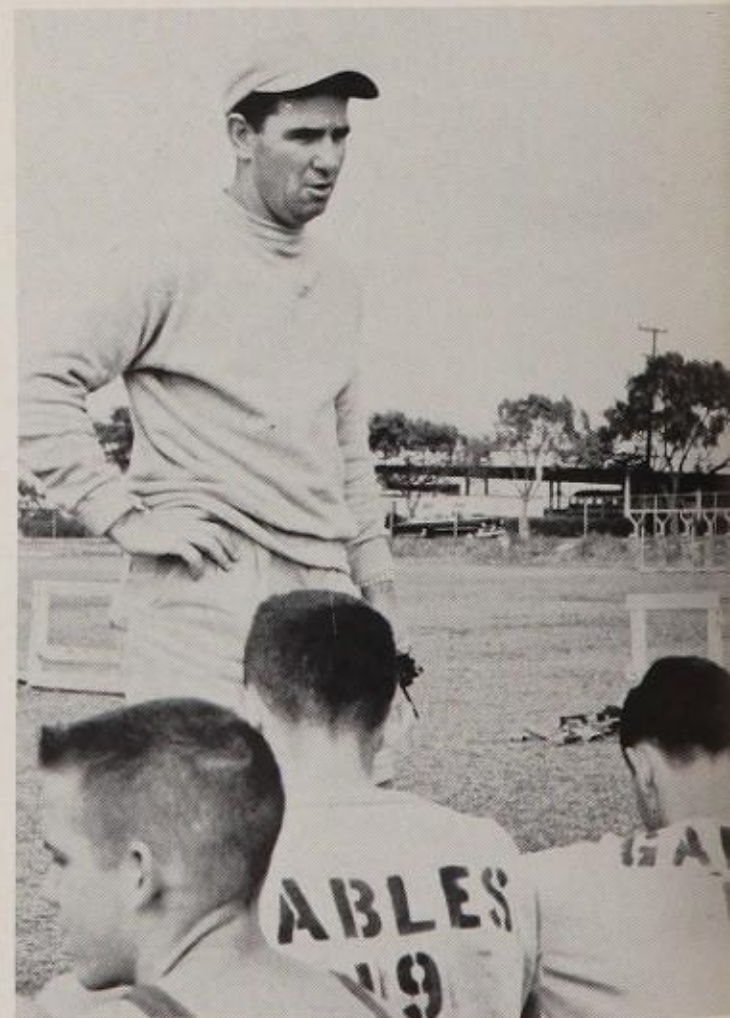

Dick Bubin and Bob Fordyce show superior form in clearing the high hurdles.

Hindered by the pre-season loss of Lee Collins, last year's high point man, the Cavalier cindermen worked hard through another season under the capable hands of Coach Ed Injaychock. With only six returning lettermen, Dick Murphy, Bob Fordyce, Ed Linnett, Terry Waters, Henry Wadsworth, and ace miler Charles Harvey, the squad plunged into a heavy schedule of meets with city foes including Edison, Jackson, Miami High, Miami Beach, and North Miami.

Harvey, Linnett, Senterfit, and Waters pour it on at the last turn of a 440 yard dash.

Coach Injaychock briefs the squad in a pre-workout talk.

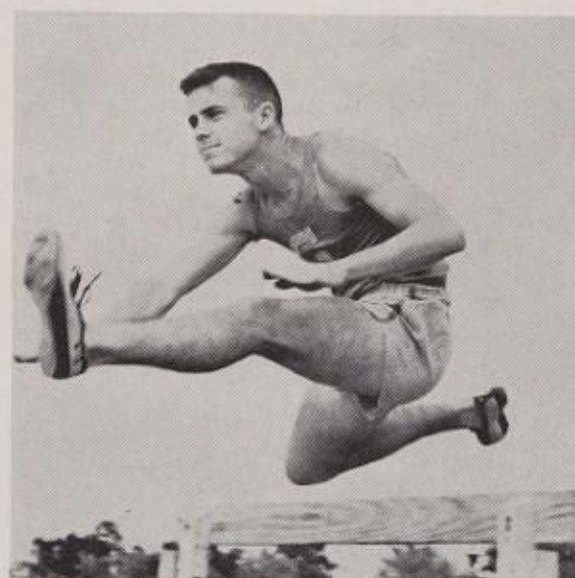

Moseley, Brodkey, Weber, and McCollister spring out at the start of a 220 yard dash.

Weight men, David Christianson and Bill Heaton, compare the heavy shot to the light discus.

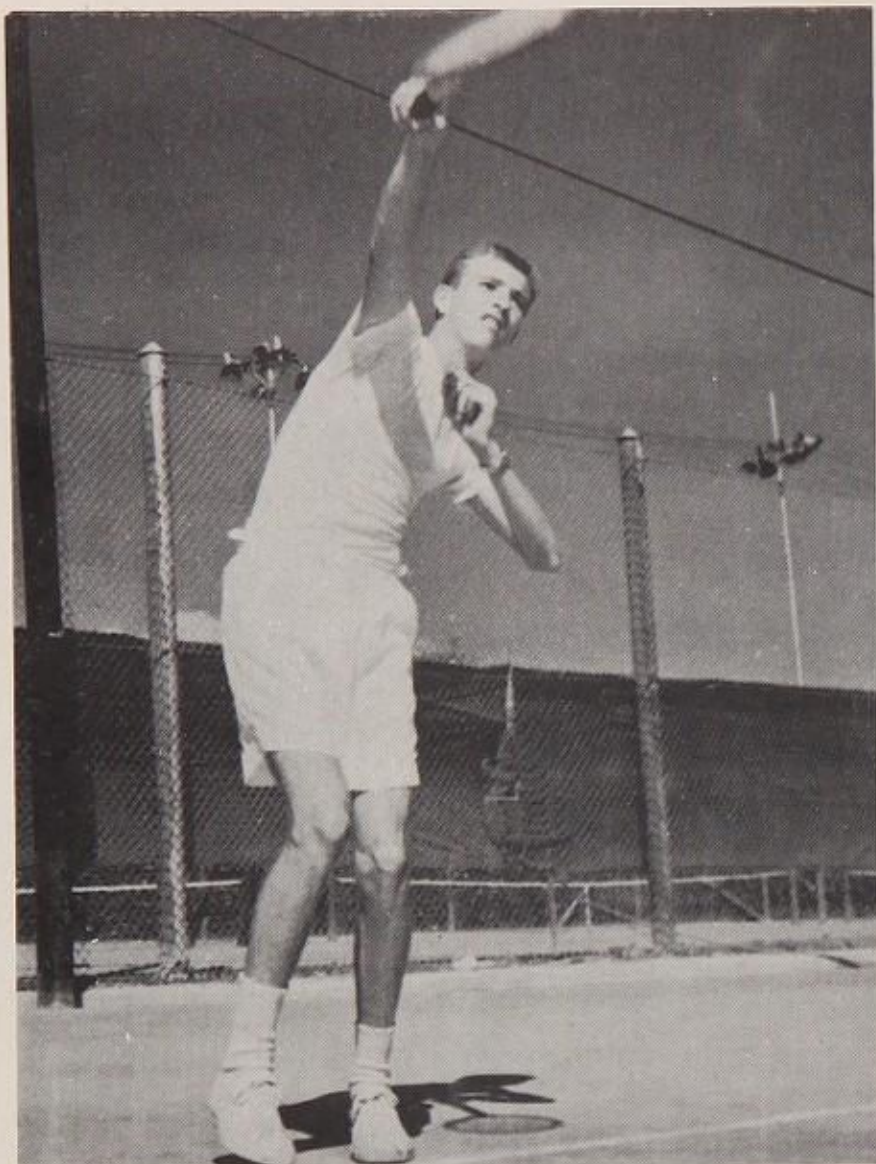

Dick Murphy, a veteran of the low hurdles, returned for another year of superb performance.

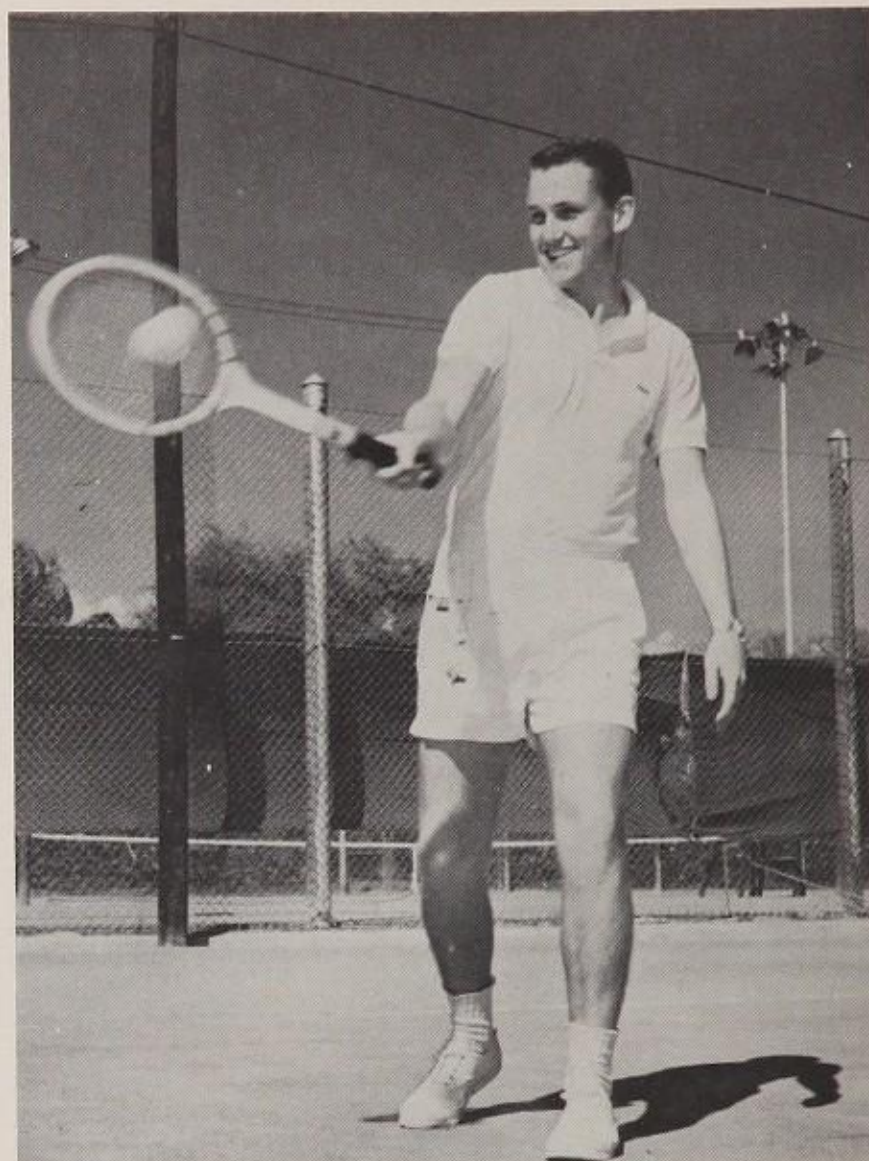

State Champion Henry Wadsworth completes another high jump, displaying the great form which took him to the top this year. Hurdlers Dick Murphy, Bob Fordyce, Dick Bubin, and Dale Murphy showed lightning agility while state champion high jumper Henry Wadsworth continued to astonish onlookers with superb feats in the high jump, 220 yard dash, pole vault, and broad jump. By season's end Gables proved themselves to be powerhold in district and state competition.

A Star-Studded Team of Champions Surged On

Captain John Skogstad executes the form that won him the state championship.

Bob Macy follows through to return an opponent's red hot serve.

This year the tennis team was coached for the first time by Mr. William Fisher, who is in his first year at Gables.

Led by three returning senior lettermen, John Skogstad, Lane Overstreet, and Bob Macy the boys' tennis team leaped to bettered heights due to much sweat and practice on the part of all members. This is truly a team to be remembered for a long time.

One of Its Greatest Seasons in History

With but three returning lettermen, the girls' tennis team smashed its way to many victories in statewide competition. Much of the load was carried by Annette Crofton; however, Janet Dillard, Robin McGlohn, and the new sophomores scored many valuable points for Gables.

Coach Fisher who led both squads through a great season of well won victories against local and state teams.

Annette Crofton picks up the ball on a backhand that helped her to be rated number one on the girls' squad.

Seven Returning Lettermen Spark

Coach Clarence Drepperd

Left to right: Lettermen Paul Nelson, John Wilkaitis, Allin Crouch.

This year's golf team, coached by Mr. Clarence Drepperd, reached the peak of perfection by remaining undefeated in county competition. Contributing to the team's success for the last time in their high school careers were senior lettermen John Jochem, Bill Schroeder, and Mike Weintraub. Teammates Paul Nelson, John Wilkaitis, Allin Crouch, and Marlene Graham will return next year to continue winning ways.

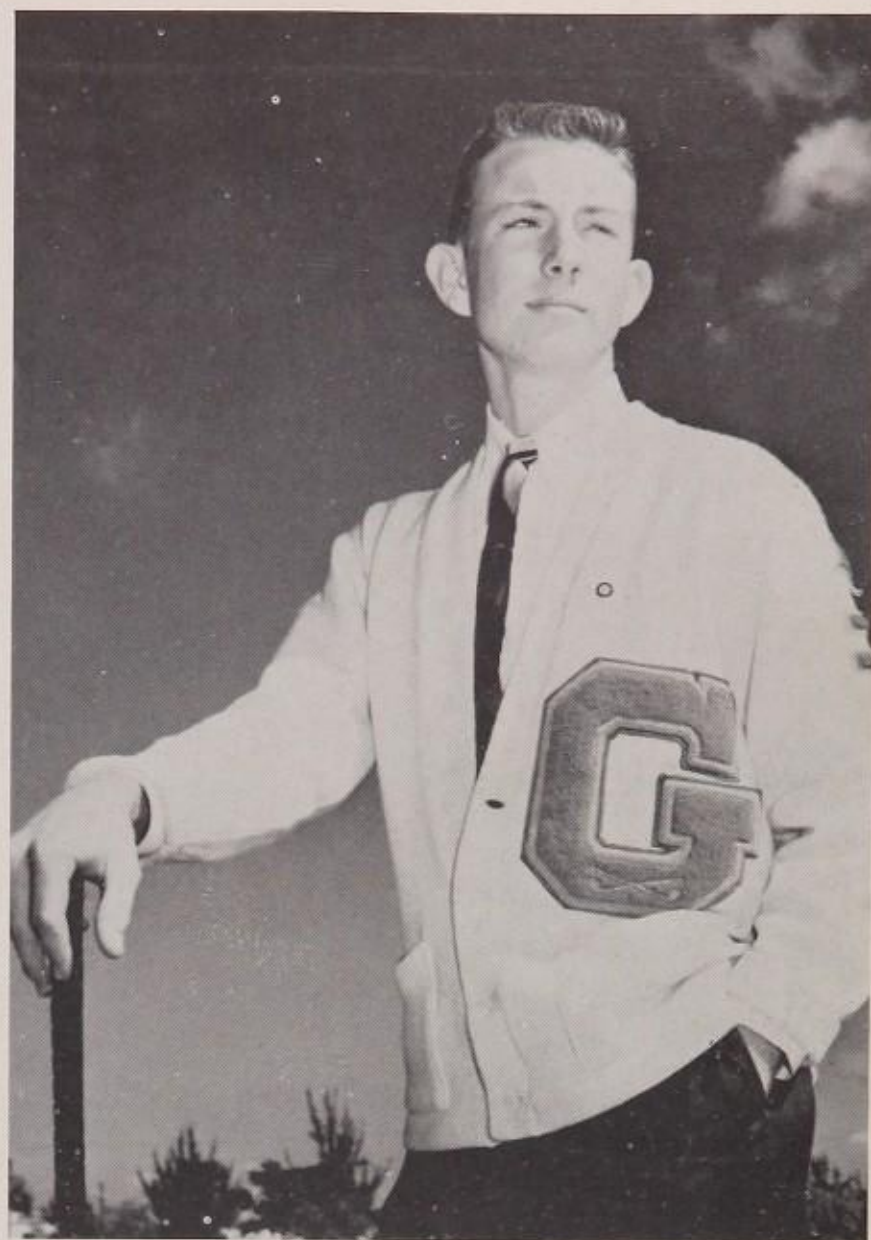

Wally Mason and Quint Nelson look on while Miriam Richer examines an iron held by Sandy Stewart.

Golf Team to Another Undefeated Season

John Jochem, the team's only four-year letterman, led the Cavalier linksters to a victorious season.

Bill Schroeder, a three-year letterman, has given four years of service to the team.

Mike Weintraub, a senior letterman, has been a bulwark in the success of this year's team.

Marlene Graham, a member of the Girls' State Championship team for two successive years, paced this year's girls' team to victory.

Because of hard practice sessions stretching from December through April, the Gables swimming team splashed their way through city and district victories. Senior freestylers Fred Wendelken and Don Jobson returned for their best and final year in high school competition while Tracy Tumlin and Scott Piper continued to shatter record after record during superb performances in meets. Jay Madala and Bill Bails handled the diving chores while adding valuable points at meets and contributing much to victories.

Gail DioGuardi led the girls' squad in excellent form as she continued to win more and more in the backstroke.

All local meets with visiting opponents and city teams were held at the Curtis Park pool where the speedy tankers' hard work and strict training paid off in full.

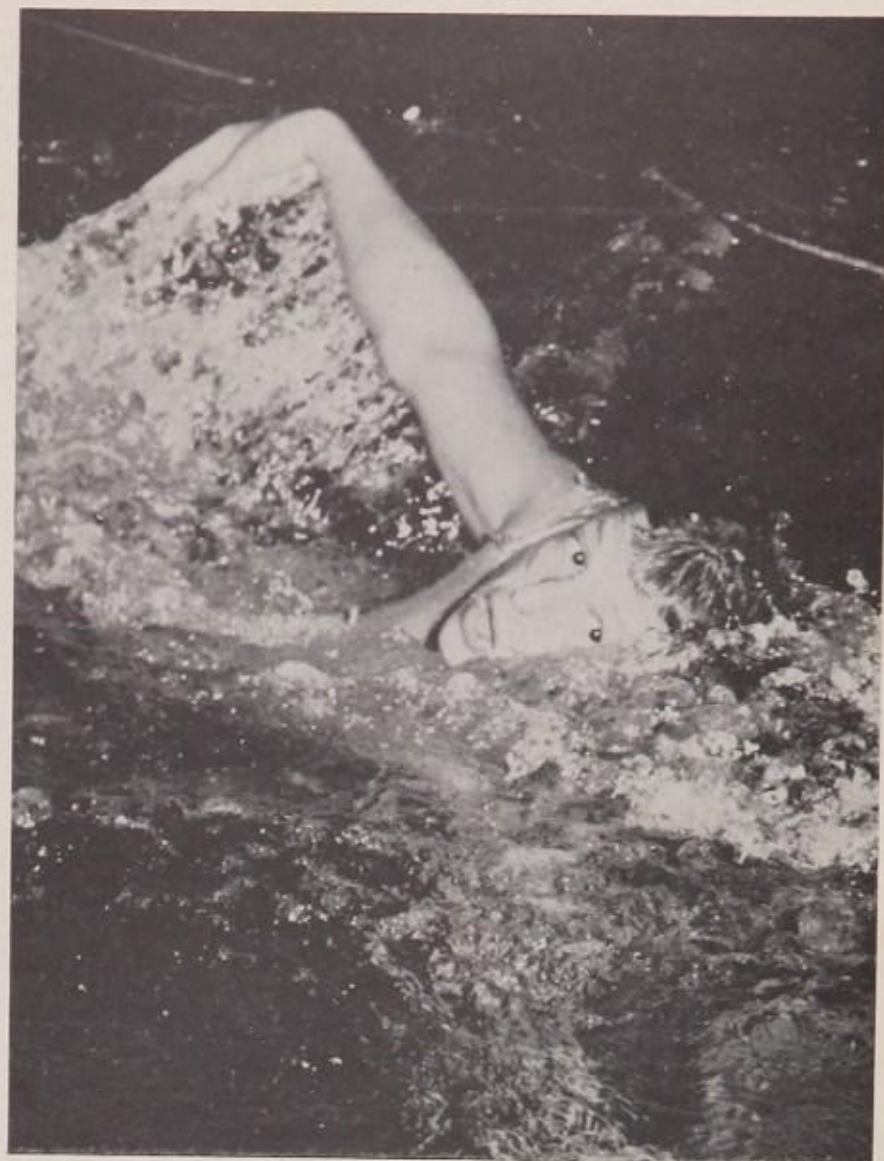

Coach "Bill" Burrell has piloted the Gables' swimmers through another successful season.

Tracy Tumblin begins a grueling breast-stroke race with a fast start.

Sophomore standout Joe Creel anxiously awaits the sound of the gun for the start of his event.

Gail DioGuardi, ace backstroker, has put in four years of hard work for the girls' swimming team.

Veteran Don Jobson flies out at the sound of the starting gun.

Jay Madala executes a swan dive from the high board.

Glen Logan works out on the horse as several members of the gymnastics team look on. This year, for the first time, the gym squad held meets with other high schools in the area. These meets were very successful and gave the boys much valuable experience.

Bowling Team Earns Recognition

Coach Mitchell Menacof led the team through its first year in city competition.

Bowling, the newest school sport, was organized in September 1955 under the direction of Mr. Mitchell Menacof. The team practices every Wednesday at the Playdium in preparation for their scheduled matches with other city schools. The Gables team showed great potential in high scores in meets with city foes, including the National champion, Miami Jackson.

Girls' Athletic Association Benefits School

Maryannette Larson, Phyllis Cohn, Margherita Larson, Pat Saunders, and Marietta Pederson guard Dona Bestonsa as she prepares to shoot.

Virginia Payne taps the ball over the net as teammates Judy Carbone, Pat Carbone, Pat Penzi, Phyllis Cohn, and Brenda Reardon look anxiously on.

Mrs. Hornor and Miss Songer demonstrate passing to the members of the "A" basketball team.

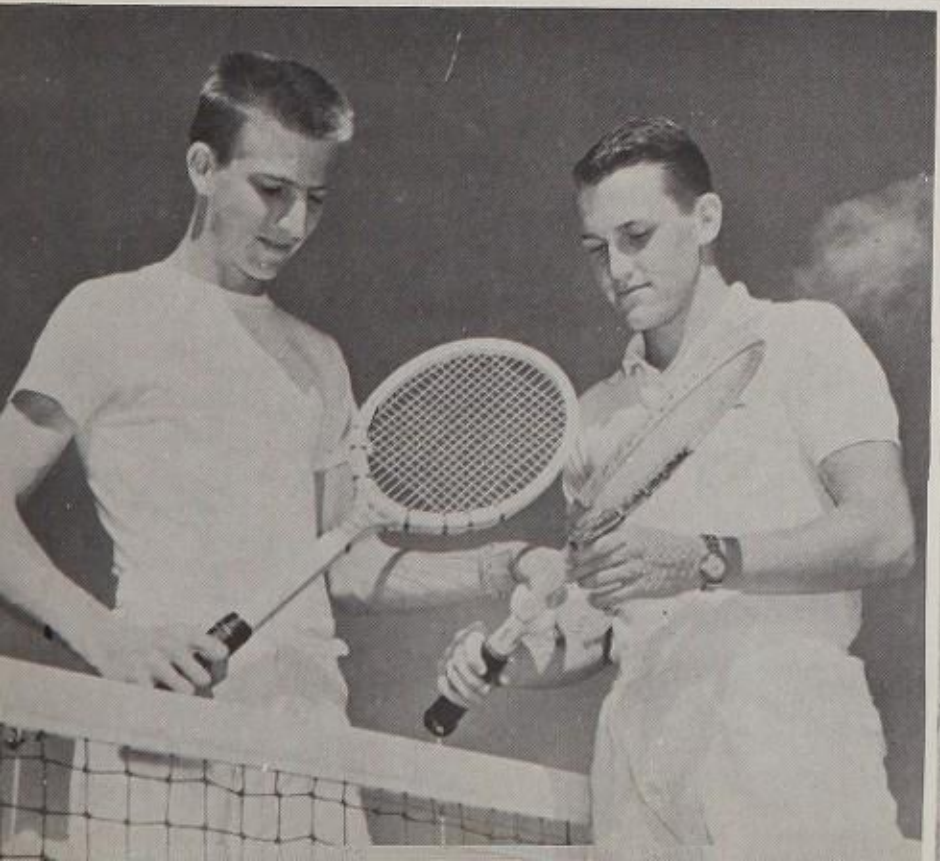

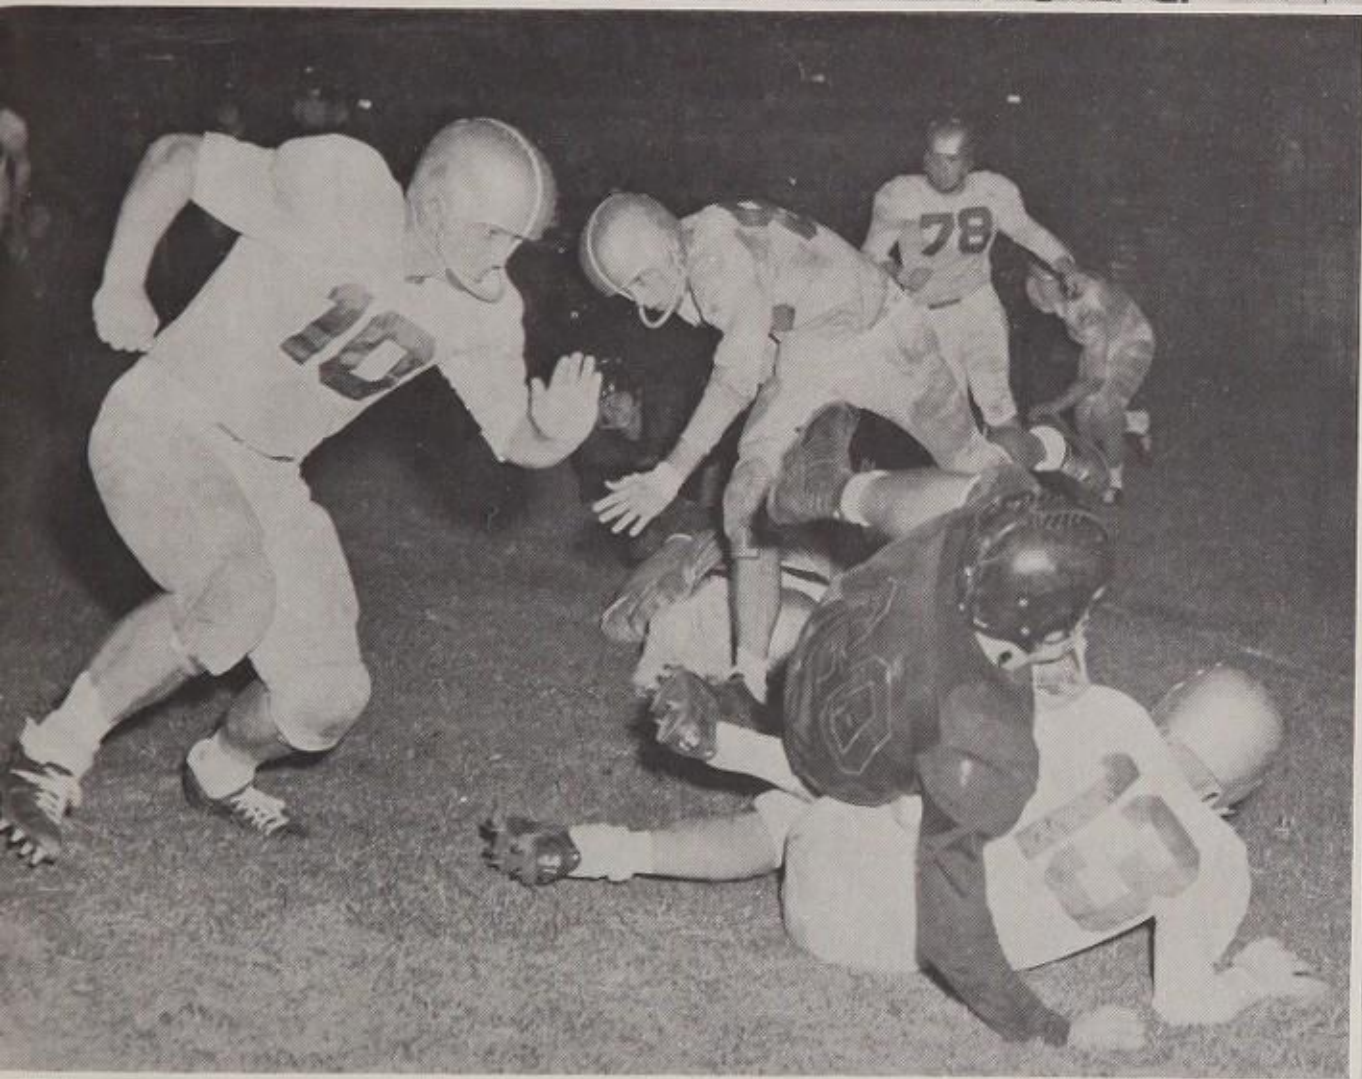

Kneeling: Captain Betty Harrill, Mary Olson, Naomi Day. Standing: Patsy House, Barbara Clark, Judy Boone, Barbara VanPatton, Roberta Boyce, Martine Pederson.

The G.A.A., organized in 1955, has 60 active members. This sports minded club has participated in various activities throughout the school year and presents awards to those girls meeting the necessary requirements.

William Shakespeare

Miss Mary Cecile Ions, beloved head of our English department, leads her college English class in a discussion of the tragedy of MacBeth.

One of the most valuable courses available at our institution of learning is the College Preparatory English class. Shakespeare, endless vocabulary, short stories, and term themes, all form a large part of this C.P. English which aids a great deal in briefing us on college careers.

Mr. Werner Dickson beams on two of his best debators, Janet Reno and Peter Camp.

Checking juniors' themes is Mrs. Helen Evans.

Conferring on teaching techniques are: Mrs. Hattie Struthers, Mrs. Joanna Woltz, and Mrs. Roberta White.

ENGLISH...THE TAP ROOTS OF OUR SCHOOL EXISTENCE

Below: Junior English teachers, Mrs. Clara Mae Hall, Mrs. Elizabeth Bowlby, Mrs. Mildred Reynolds, and Miss Elizabeth Minton, find the glass enclosed library conference room a good place to confer.

HISTORY...THE ROOT AND BRANCH OF ALL UNDERSTANDING

Mr. James Corcoran approves the history project Janet Smith has completed.

The head of our history department, Miss Evelyn Massey, leads her class in a discussion on current events.

Below: Considering the new semester schedule are Mr. William Fisher, Mr. William Monroe, and Mr. Quentin Umbenhower.

BETWEEN THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD

Preparing students' report cards are Miss Ann Barber, Mr. Clarence Dreppard, and Mrs. Herberta Leonardy.

Miss Elizabeth Mott listens attentively, with her students, to an oral report on our local government.

Below: One of our attractive history teachers, Miss Vera Fascell, tells her class what will be studied the coming six weeks.

Below: Miss Katherine Davis, Mrs. Elizabeth Larson, and Miss Katherine Megibben spend their free period working and relaxing in the history office.

LANGUAGES...THE WORLD BEYOND THE BOUNDARIES OF

Miss Eloise Patterson, our Language Department head, tells her students about our Latin American friends.

Languages form the common ground for friendships, and all situations. Latin, Spanish, and French are the courses offered for their educational and vocational qualities. Much work is involved in the study of these languages but the rewards reaped are endless.

Mr. Thomas Campbell mixes wit and hard work in all of his French classes.

Mrs. Elizabeth Boone quizzes Spanish students on their vocabulary.

OUR FOREST OPENS GREAT NEW VISTAS FOR US

Both modern and ancient languages are thoroughly taught by our efficient teachers.

Listening to Patti Flotken read her Spanish dialogue are Mrs. Katherine Goodwin and Miss Claire Dressler.

Our two Latin teachers, Mrs. Sue Piant and Mrs. Evelyn McBroom, inspect their students' notebooks.

Bob LeFiles gets his Spanish assignment from Mr. Lewis Caputa in the Dean's office, where Mr. Caputa, as the Dean's assistant, spends much of his time.

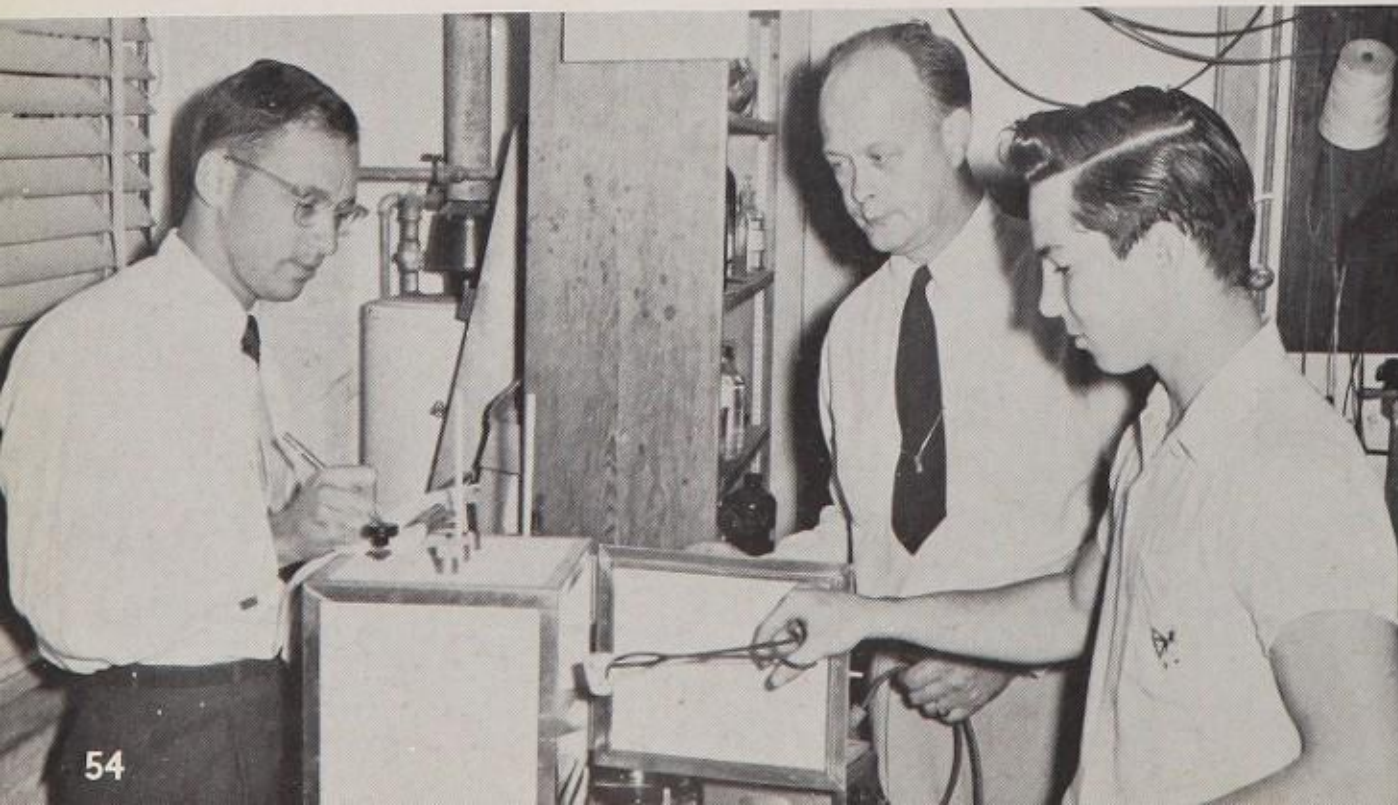

The antics of the weather are explained by Mr. Abbott Messler, Science Department head and Physics teacher.

The advanced knowledge and the great number of instruments used in the Science Department, combine to make the study of our environment much more interesting.

Examining and explaining the flower is Miss Ann Gilkey, Biology teacher; while Mrs. Donna Chapman, Effective Living instructor, looks on.

Conducting an experiment in the darkroom are Mr. Robert Drobner and Mr. Walter Bowlby, Chemistry instructors.

Courses in biology, chemistry, physics, and effective living are offered to open a new field of learning.

AS SOME WOULD MAKE US BELIEVE

Effective living is a practical course. It teaches our students how to get along better in everyday life and solve the problems it presents. It is a preparation for a happy, future family and happier individuals.

During his free period Mr. Gregg, Effective Living teacher, is in charge of the hall locks.

Looking over the bee hive in the Biology laboratory is Mr. Dario Pierleoni and Mr. Herbert Wertz.

Three geniuses at rest are: Mr. Jack MacCurdy, Mr. Donald Gordon, and Mr. Luther Hovan.

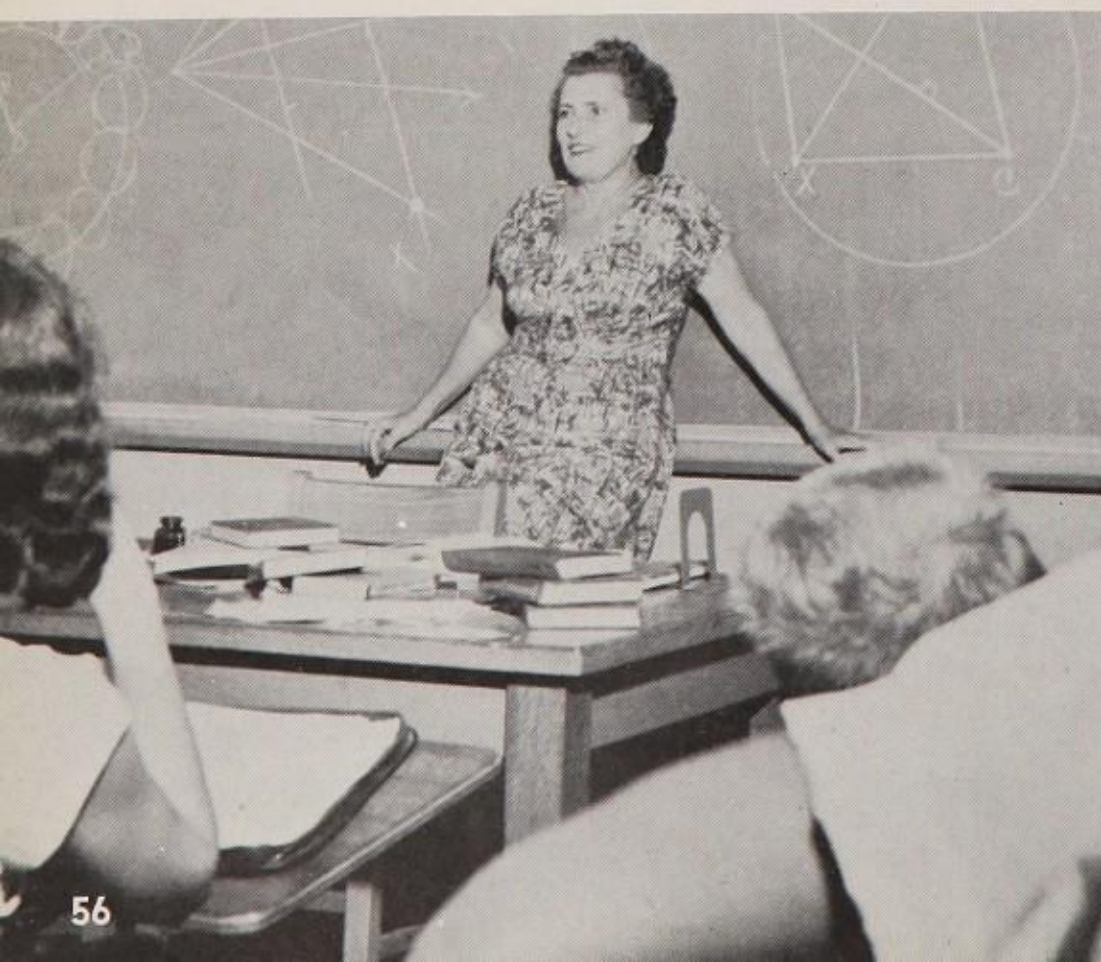

Mrs. Margaret East, busy head of the Mathematics department, receives some new books in the math office.

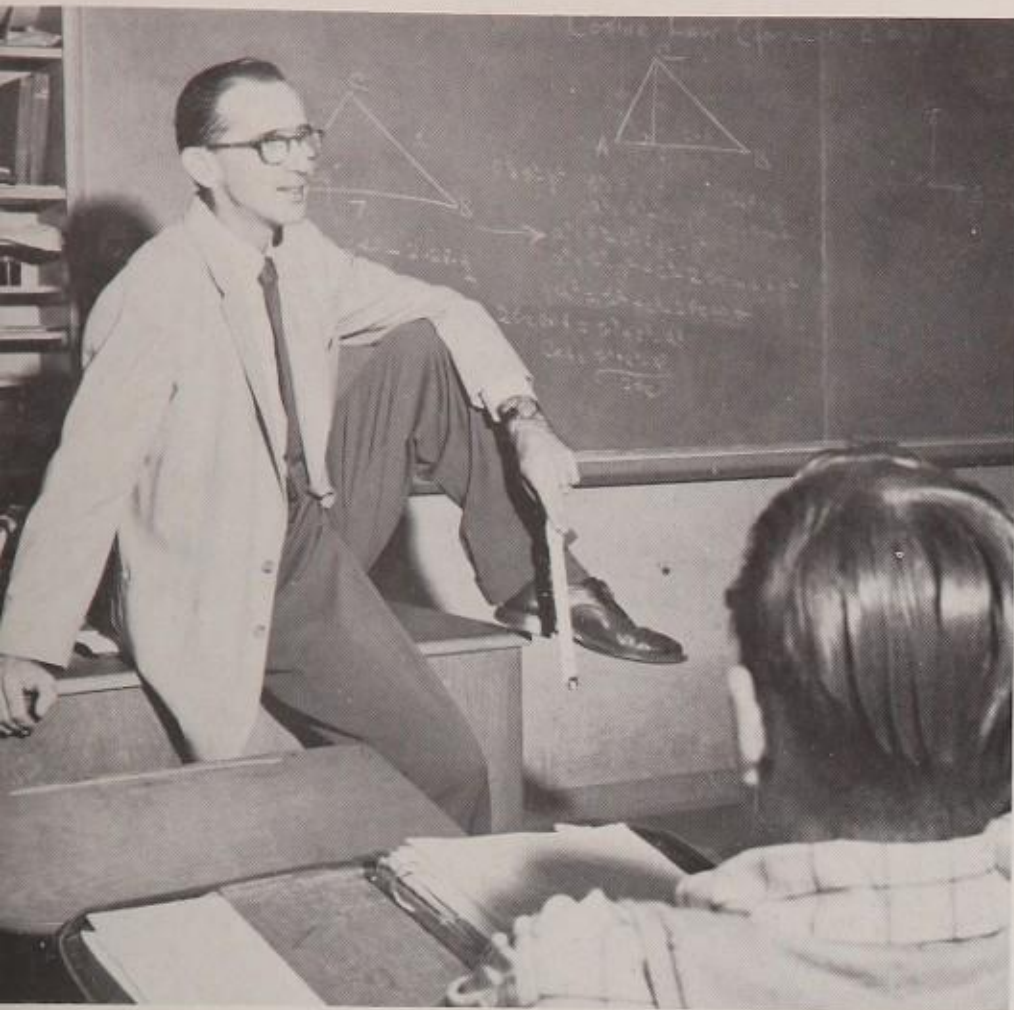

Mr. Edward Borden is an Algebra teacher and he is also in charge of the Audio-Visual department and can often be found working with the projectors.

Left: Mrs. Irene (Ma) Murray, popular Math teacher, has her class concentrating on some fundamentals of geometry.

ANGLES... UNTIL THEY THROW US CURVES

Above: Mr. Robert Parent, witty and popular Geometry teacher, explains the Cosmic Law.

Mrs. Roselle Foster stops on the way to the mail room to look in on Mrs. Mildred Durden's well behaved class.

Two math teachers, Mr. William Byrd and Mr. James Newmeyer, take a few minutes off from their various duties to admire the sports scrapbook.

Mr. Jerome Goldberg, Mrs. Gloria Hubinger, and Mrs. Letitia Hinson look over the Second Year Algebra book.

The BUSINESS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT does an excellent job of training the students for the business world. The numerous machines, such as the dictaphone, tape recorder, mimeograph, comptometer, calculator, and adding machine all add to the experience gained by taking any of these courses.

Mrs. Maude Cook, head of the Business Education department, returns an "A" shorthand test to Barbara Garcia.

Typing, shorthand, Business English, bookkeeping and clerical practice help our students get along with their co-workers and keep up with the competitive world when they enter their chosen vocation.

Mrs. Helen Zacur, Mr. Fred Wilson, and Mrs. Charlotte Cleland discuss the different phases of the business training they teach.

FACILITY WITH TYPEWRITERS, ETC.

Mrs. Dorothy Lund and Miss Carol Waggoner compare the timed writings their students have just completed for the awards and medals.

Miss Essie Shepler gives dictation to Ethel Fricke while Mr. John Bianco corrects her previous letter.

Mr. J. Graves Ballard and Mrs. Louise Friberg check to see that Bob Fordyce has no strikeovers.

HOMEMAKING...STATISTICS PROVE...

EVERYBODY LIKES TO EAT

Efficient homemaking teachers Mrs. Dolores Knapp, Mrs. Marguerite Cleveland, and Mrs. Louise Courtelis stay after school to plan tomorrow's cooking menu and share some refreshments.

Besides the classroom instruction the girls obtain in Home Economics there is also a practical side. Judy Kotys and Marcia Edwards serve mothers and teachers some goodies their classmates prepared.

Table decorations are but a small part of the interesting and educational program planned by the Homemaking Department.

ART SATISFIES THE CREATIVE INSTINCT

Judging her students' drawings is Mrs. Ann George, head of our Art Department.

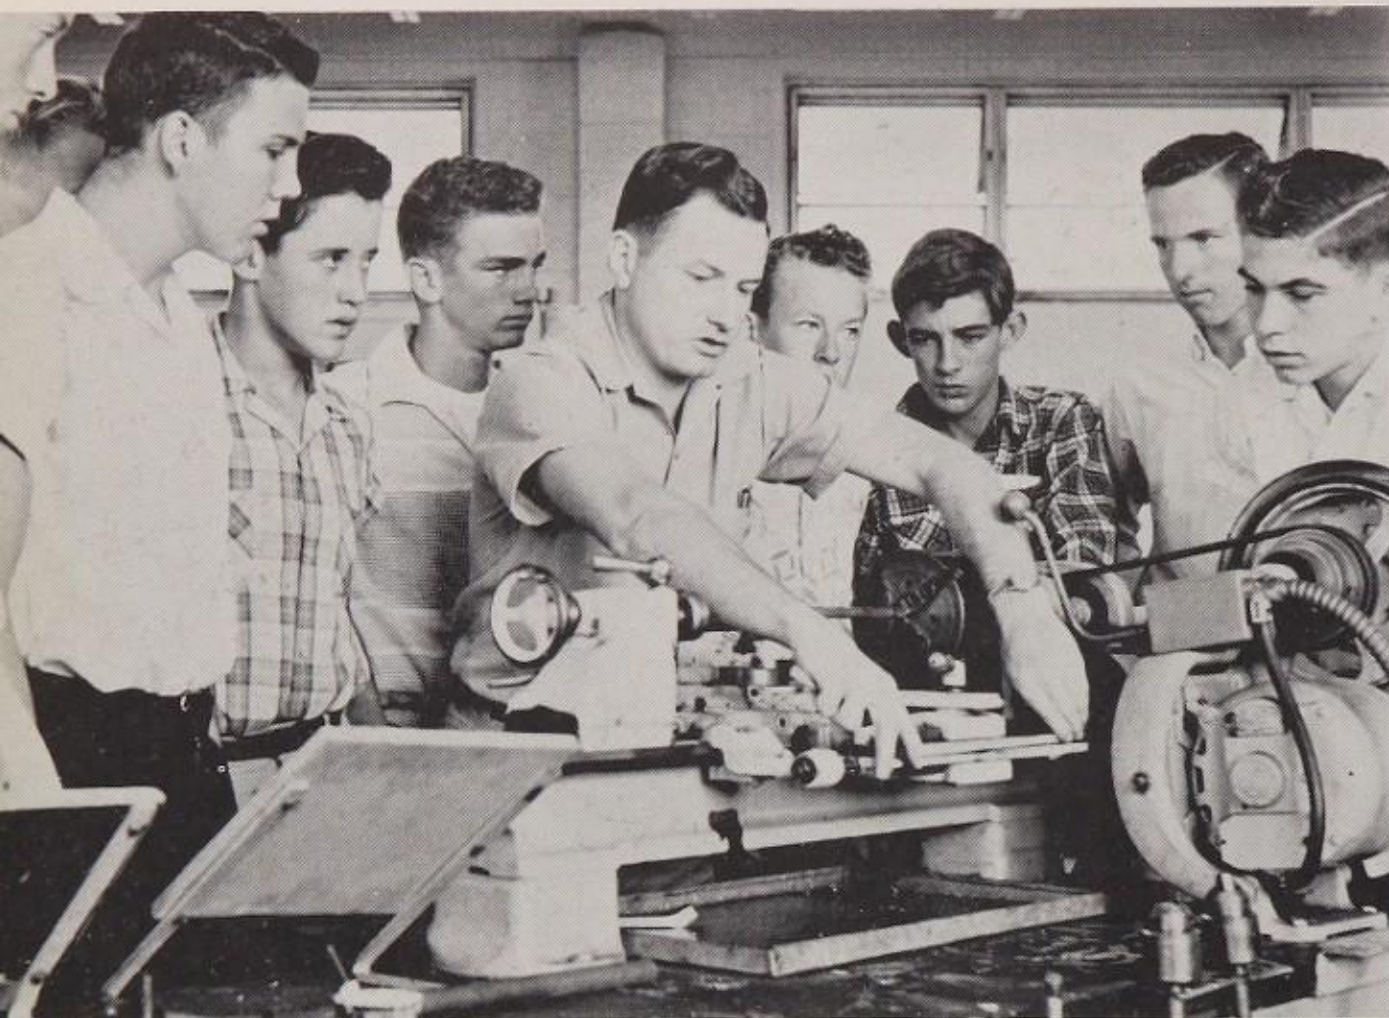

Working with clay in Arts and Crafts is Mr. James Seymour and two of his students.

Working in the wood shop with his boys is Mr. Paul Feinerer.

AND WOOD CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

Creating and working with the hands is an important part of any boy's life. The modern and varying equipment in the shops makes the course one that is always popular.

Mr. Dean Thomas introduces his boys to the complexities of the metal lathe.

Mr. William Dellow guides Tom Atwood in drawing a blueprint.

Mr. Earl Bassett gives Jim Ruck some printing instructions in the Graphics Department.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION SEASONS THE WOOD

Above: Mrs. Maria Hornor, Physical Education teacher, instructs part of her class on the art of horseback riding—a slight deviation from the usual form of the popular sport.

Below: Coach Charles Harris proves that education really does have its little ups and downs.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANTS KEEP WHEELS TURNING

The secretarial part of running our School of Distinction is accomplished by this group of ladies: Mrs. Fernandez, attendance; Mrs. Agneta Heldt, registrar; Mrs. Zelda Norman, secretary; Miss Barbara Rucker, guidance secretary; Mrs. Janet Burd, finance; Miss Yvonne Corrigan, bookroom; and Miss Dorothy Serna, the principal's secretary.

Mrs. Catherine Blakey, the school nurse, checks with one of her student nurses on the health of a student.

Mrs. Harriet Prance is kept busy keeping our Guidance Center functioning smoothly and arranging our students' schedules.

ESSENTIAL BRANCHES OF OUR SCHOOL TREE

This hard working group of boys represents our Visual Aid department. They are, kneeling: Charles Cooper, Francis Carter, Mike Benedetto, Henry Tracy, William Fienning. Standing: Jerry Liven-good, Pete Dowling, Kenneth Rehe, Jack Thomson, Harry Dell, Lee Sevald, Arnold Levy, Jack Applegate, Fred Sexton, James Evernden, Harry Jenner, Robert Pfiennenberger, and Robert Ramsey.

Head custodian, Mr. Harry Carter, orders some school supplies, and does it with a smile.

Below: Mrs. Laura Olson checks the order for tomorrow's menu in the cafeteria.

AND WILL WE EVER FORGET ?

Above: Mrs. Virginia Logan, popular study hall teacher, keeps an eye on her industrious students. Maybe that's why they are so industrious.

Above: Mrs. Lois Cole, Mrs. Eleanor Wilson, and Mrs. Virginia Callaway make some additions in the files of our library after the arrival of a new shipment of books.

Below: Mr. Mitchell Menacof, the driving teacher, instructs his attentive potential drivers on the technicalities of a gear shift car.

WE'RE PROUD OF THEM

Now that you have seen our Faculty, we would like to say a word or two about them. We think they are tops. We must be a true test of tolerance at times—in fact, lots of times.

We are proud of our title, The School of Distinction. That title was hard to come by, hard to live up to. But we are just that and we expect to remain same.

Our graduates have made brilliant inroads into the professions, various fields of science and business. Our immediate predecessors have been accepted in healthy numbers into the Ivy League.

When one of us makes a highly acceptable showing in those dreaded College Boards, we are inclined to say “There’s a brilliant kid.” But native ability is not enough. It takes a lot of hewing, polishing and discipline to get raw material into College Board-passing caliber. There’s precisely where our teachers enter into the picture. Amazing what smooth products they can turn out from such green material, as evidenced by the mighty Senior vs. the lowly Sophomore.

We appreciate all our teachers do for us besides the accepted academic chores. Sponsoring clubs, working athletic events—especially the Orange Bowl games—buying every gadget or thingamajig that we hawk off on them from Allied Youth taffy to jinx dolls—stuff that they could do very well without—chaperoning our dances, staying after school to drill and tutor us. Not fun for anyone involved, but, come to think of it, they do it willingly—we, grudgingly, mostly.

Perhaps they will be surprised to read this. They didn’t know we cared, really. But we do and we are glad that we wrote this. We’ve had it on our minds for a long time.

Junior Class officers for this year are:

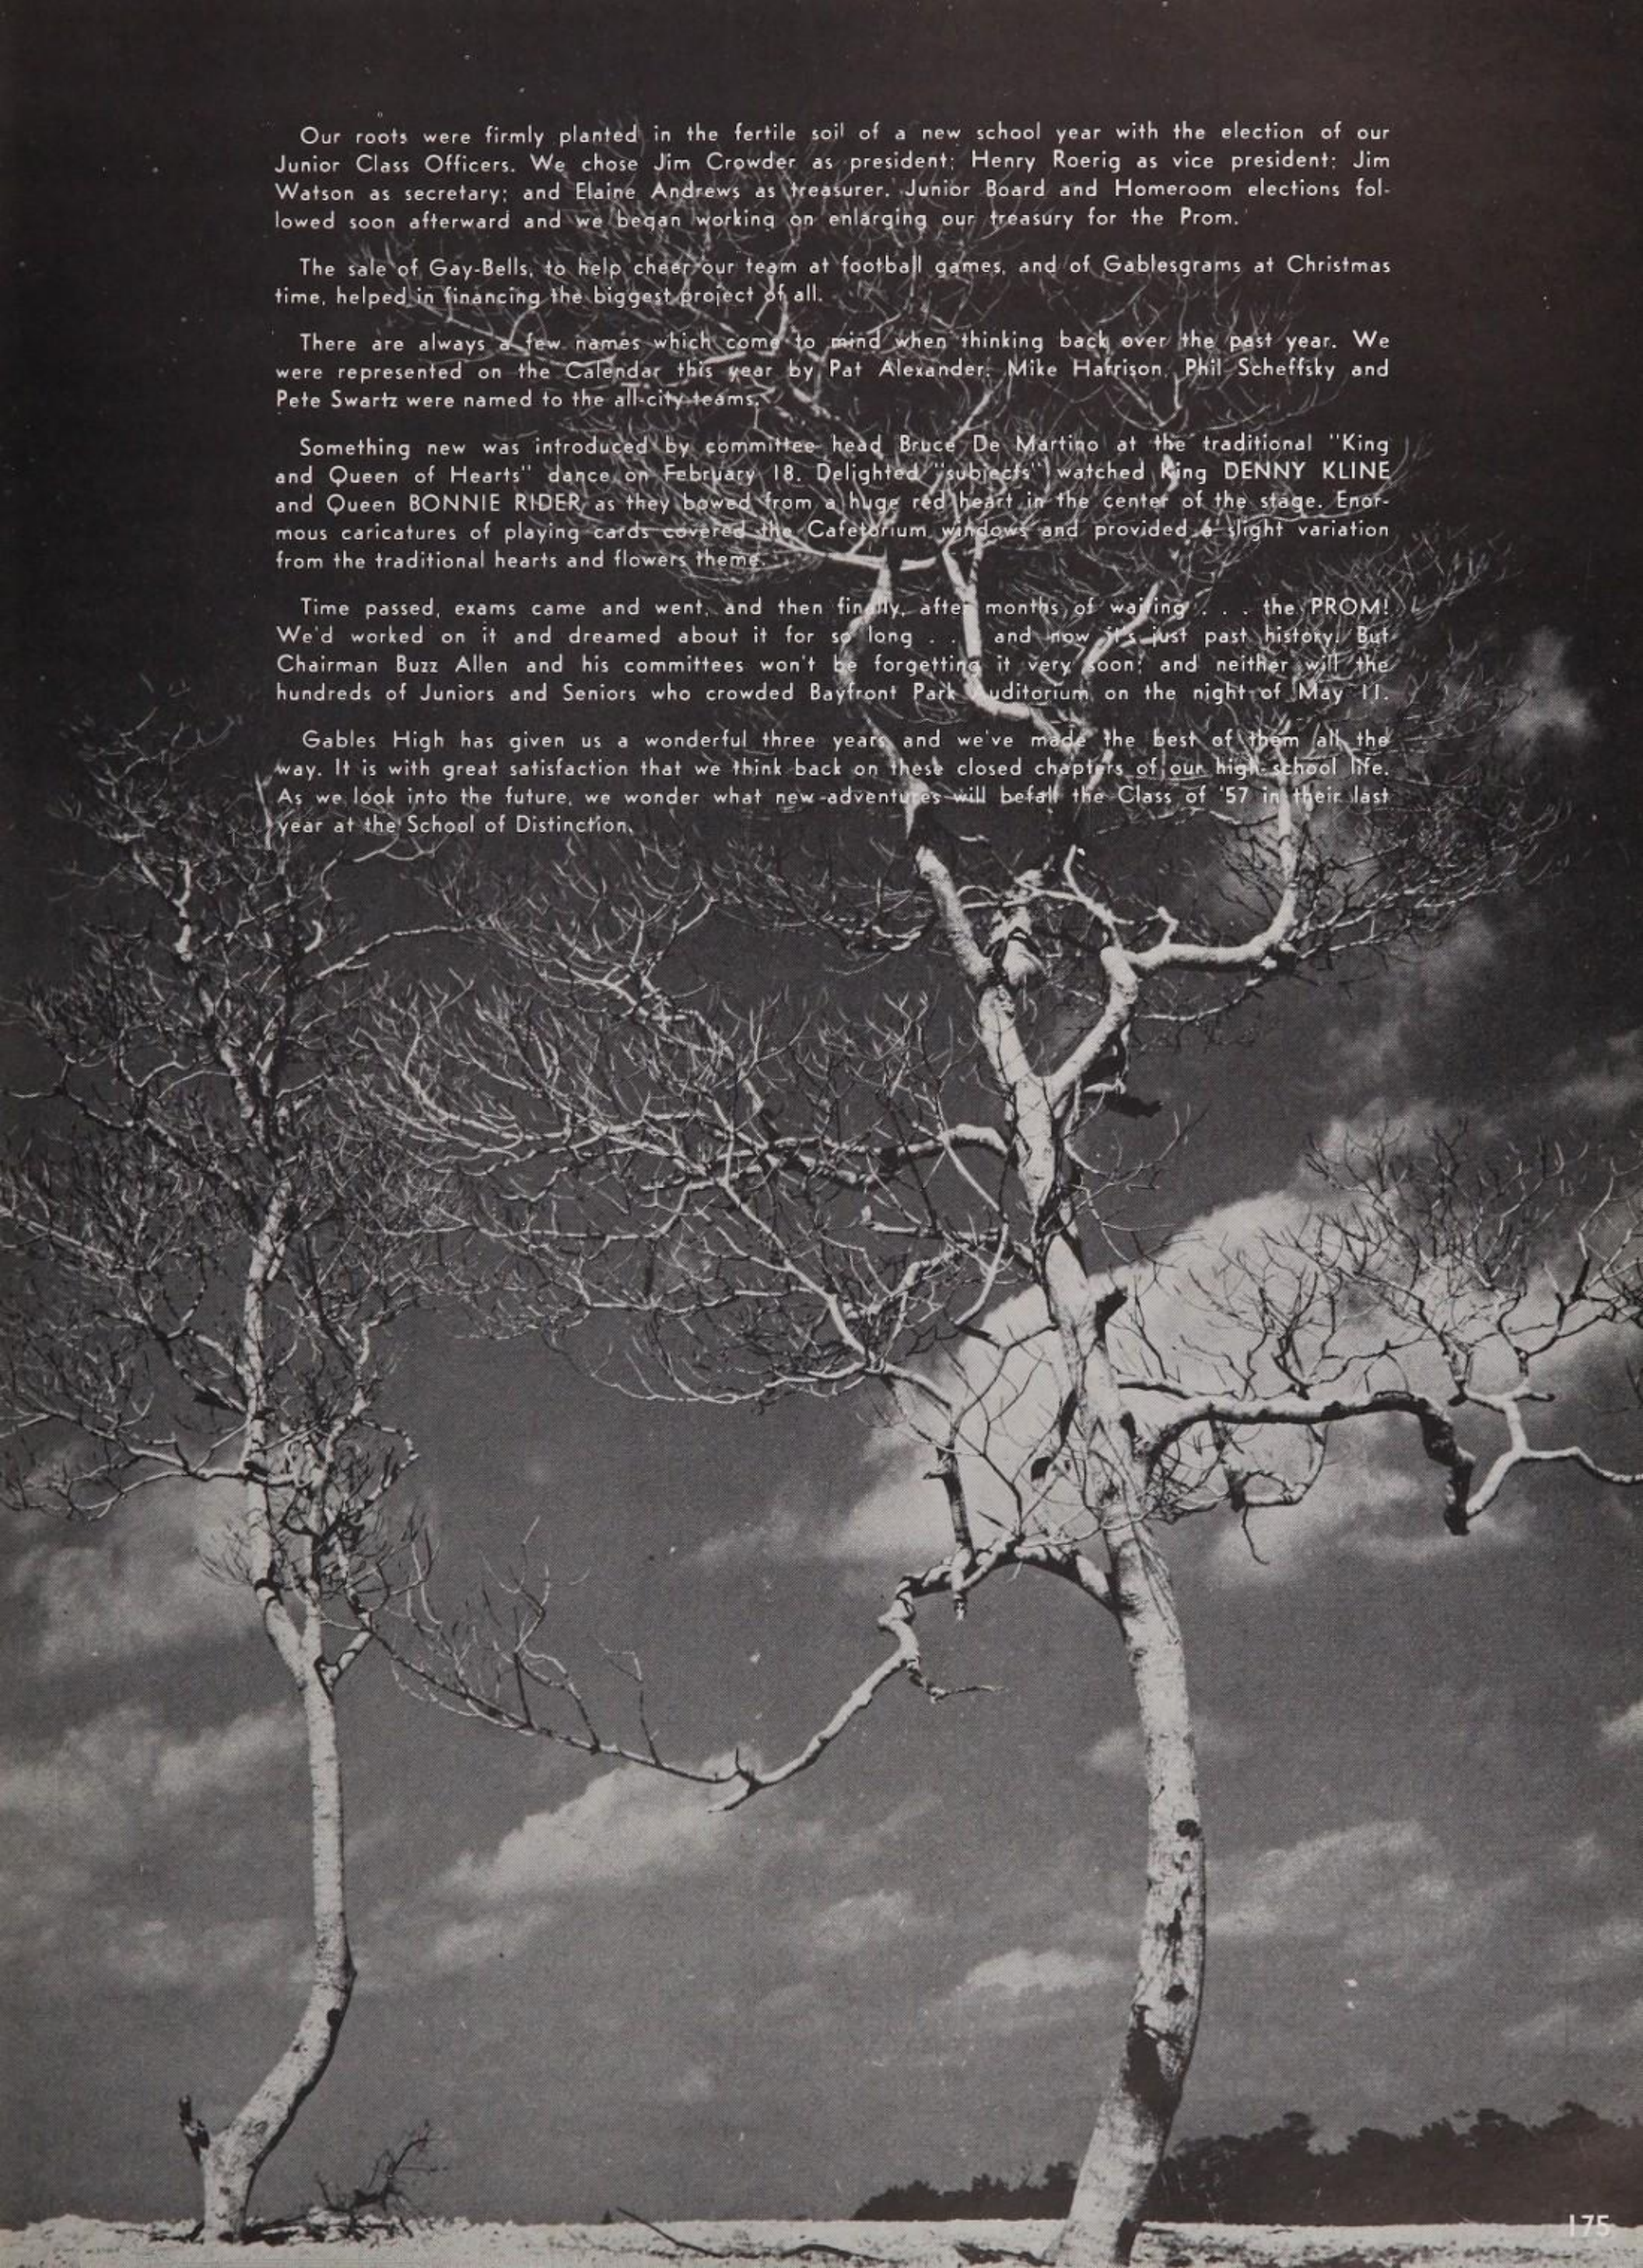

JIM CROWDER
President

JAN WATSON
Secretary

HENRY REERIG
Vice President

ELAINE ANDREWS
Treasurer

Our roots were firmly planted in the fertile soil of a new school year with the election of our Junior Class Officers. We chose Jim Crowder as president; Henry Roerig as vice president; Jim Watson as secretary; and Elaine Andrews as treasurer. Junior Board and Homeroom elections followed soon afterward and we began working on enlarging our treasury for the Prom.

The sale of Gay-Bells, to help cheer our team at football games, and of Gablesgrams at Christmas time, helped in financing the biggest project of all.

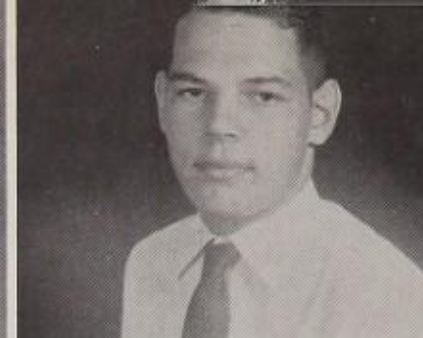

There are always a few names which come to mind when thinking back over the past year. We were represented on the Calendar this year by Pat Alexander, Mike Harrison, Phil Scheffsky and Pete Swartz were named to the all-city teams.

Something new was introduced by committee head Bruce De Martino at the traditional "King and Queen of Hearts" dance on February 18. Delighted "subjects" watched King DENNY KLINE and Queen BONNIE RIDER as they bowed from a huge red heart in the center of the stage. Enormous caricatures of playing cards covered the Cafetorium windows and provided a slight variation from the traditional hearts and flowers theme.

Time passed, exams came and went, and then finally, after months of waiting . . . the PROM! We'd worked on it and dreamed about it for so long . . . and now it's just past history. But Chairman Buzz Allen and his committees won't be forgetting it very soon; and neither will the hundreds of Juniors and Seniors who crowded Bayfront Park Auditorium on the night of May 11.

Gables High has given us a wonderful three years and we've made the best of them all the way. It is with great satisfaction that we think back on these closed chapters of our high school life. As we look into the future, we wonder what new adventures will befall the Class of '57 in their last year at the School of Distinction.

Oh, those term themes!

"Is this thing part of the fountain?"

"Anything to make a buck."

"We worked and worked and worked . . ."

"Get out of here, darn you!"

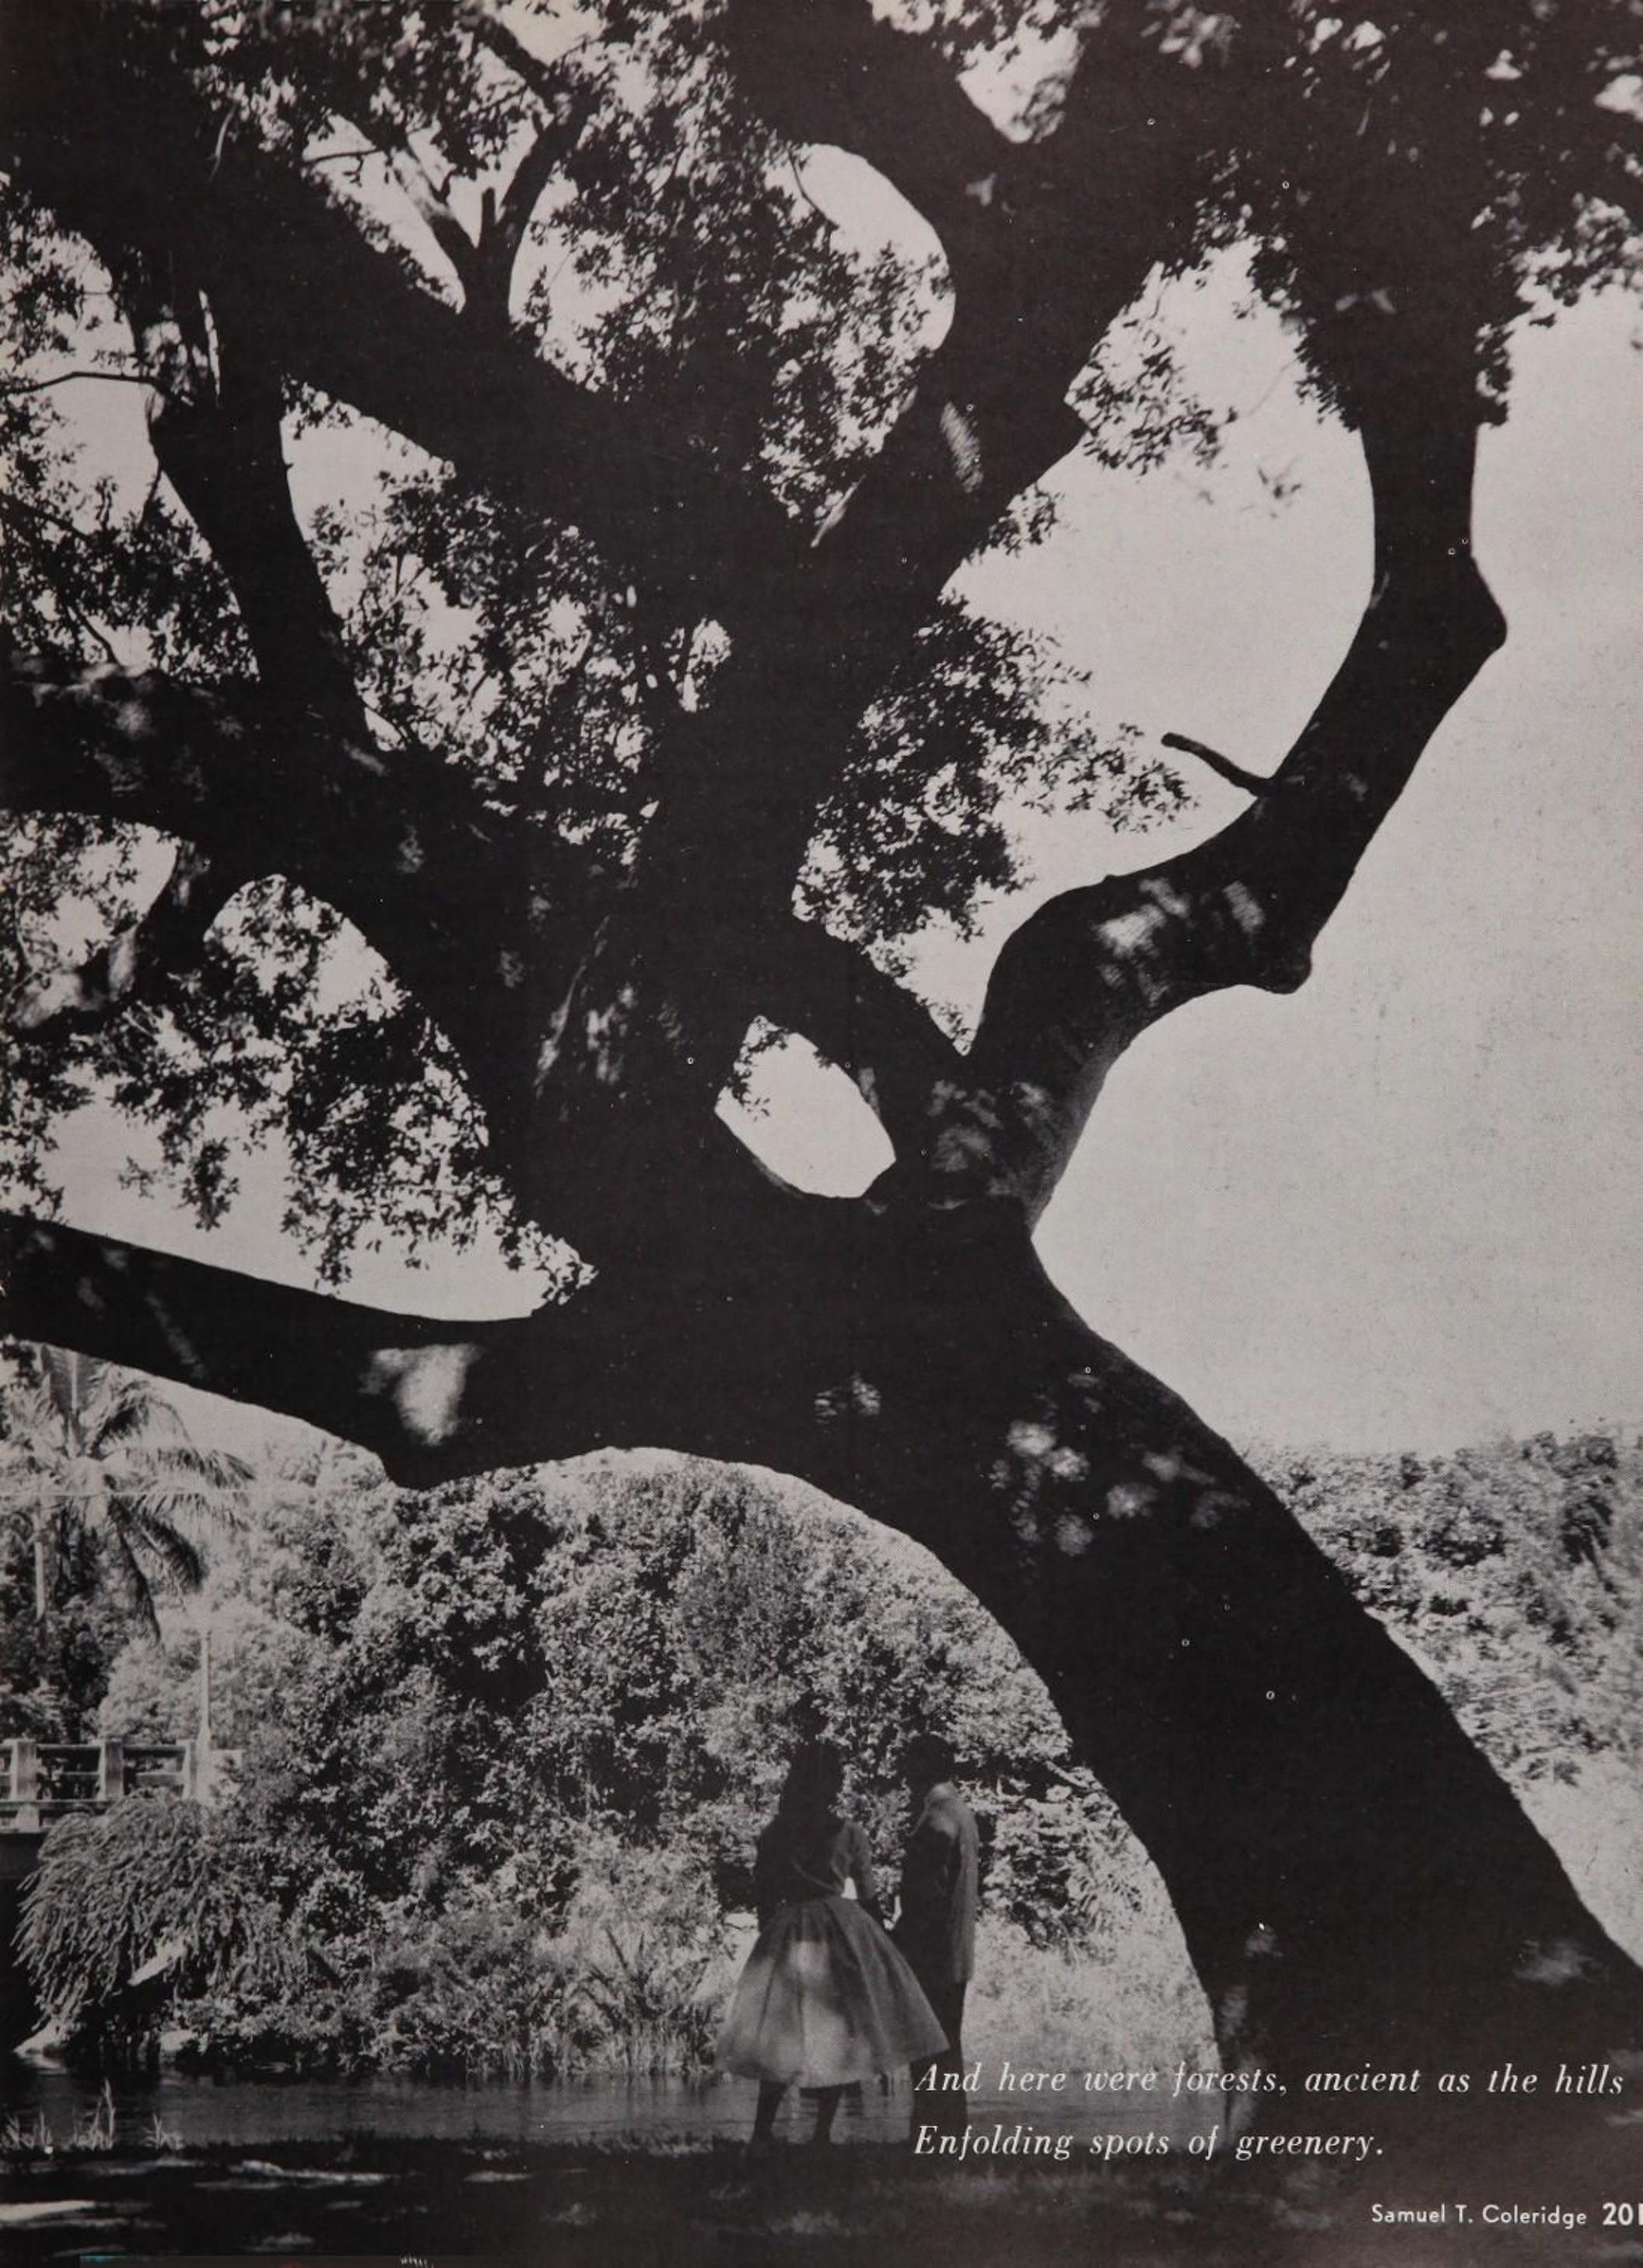

"But I don't understand!"

Under sunny skies, the Senior Class is graduated . . .

*And here were forests, ancient as the hills
Enfolding spots of greenery.*

We seniors, as we look back over our four years, see ourselves as freshmen . . . our first class officers: Cary Findlay, Icky Kelley, Natalie Brundage, and Judy Victor . . . our first dance where Icky Kelley and Pat Ussery were chosen class favorites . . . the frosh float "Mop up Jackson" in the Homecoming parade . . . our fabulous Easter Ball . . . As sophomores, we began to feel we were a part of Gables . . . Cary Findlay, Tom Huggins, Natalie Brundage, and Judy Victor led our class this year . . . club bids came out, with our class sporting the new pins . . . Sue Lieser and Icky Kelley, Sophomore Sweethearts . . . construction began on our new auditorium . . . the second Easter Ball . . . Juniors, upperclassmen at last . . . Cary Findlay again leads our class with Icky Kelley, Sue Leiser, and

Judy Victor . . . Representatives for Girls' and Boys' State . . . Bunny Cefalu and John Brockaway reigning as King and Queen of Hearts . . . Student Council elections: Cary Findlay, Bill Heaton, Natalie Brundage, and Pat Ussery . . . and finally the Prom of all proms—"A Garden in the Rain" . . . Now we are seniors and can say, "We made it" . . . Our last dance; the Charity Ball . . . our final, wonderful football season . . . Homecoming week and all the excitement . . . those hectic Senior Placement exams . . . the faithful High Lights . . . last exams . . . the Prom — for us . . . our last Cavaleon Cavern . . . Skip Day . . . then Baccalaureate . . . and finally—Graduation! As we, class of '56, walk down these halls for the last time we say "Thank you, Gables, for four wonderful years."

CAVALLERON SALUTES

The seniors and faculty have chosen the people pictured on the following pages for their meritorious achievements who, while gaining honors, also made Gables more truly the School of Distinction. We salute them for their generous contributions to the school and their loyalty to the best ideals of Gables.

Janet Galbreath,
Editor-in-Chief

CLASS OF 1956

KATHLEEN BECKHAM . . . whose dancing added luster to many of our spectaculars.

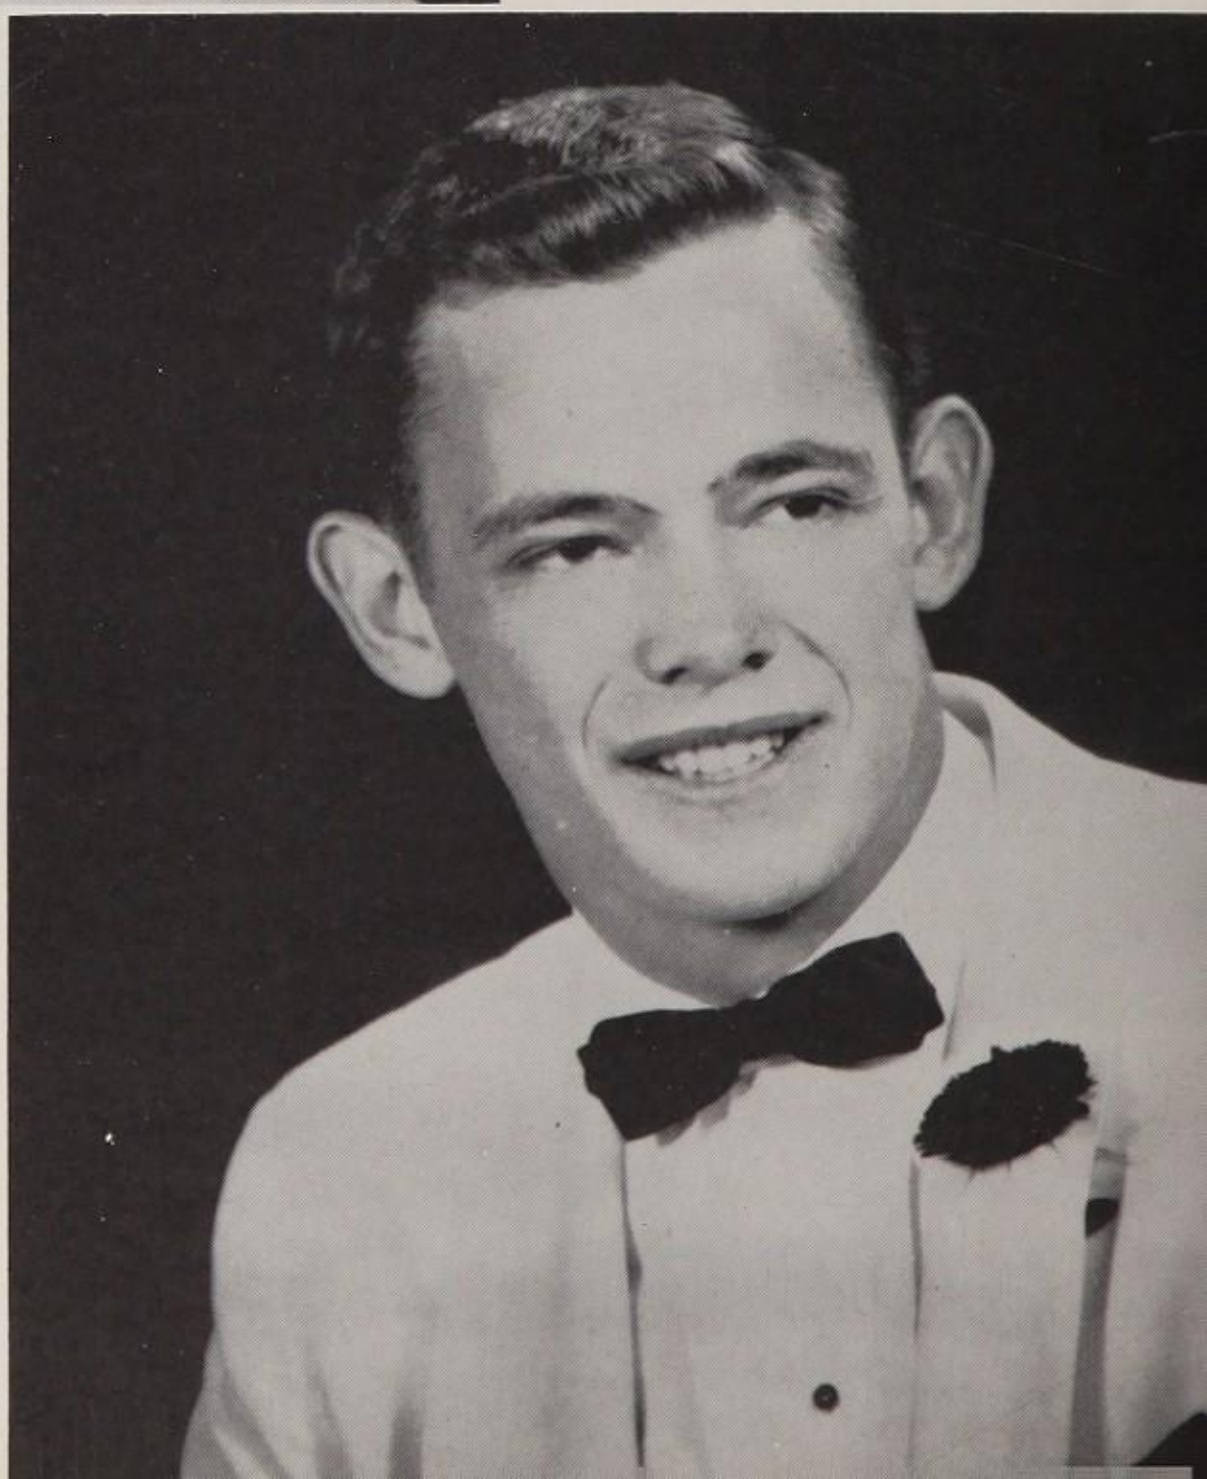

GENE CASEY . . . editor, trackman, and an awfully nice guy.

RHONA BERUBE . . . among her many honors was reigning as Homecoming Queen.

ROSS DOWNING . . . athlete extraordinary, who is singularly blessed with an amazing number of other virtues.

NATALIE BRUNDAGE . . . Student Council was a greater organization because of her devotion and efforts.

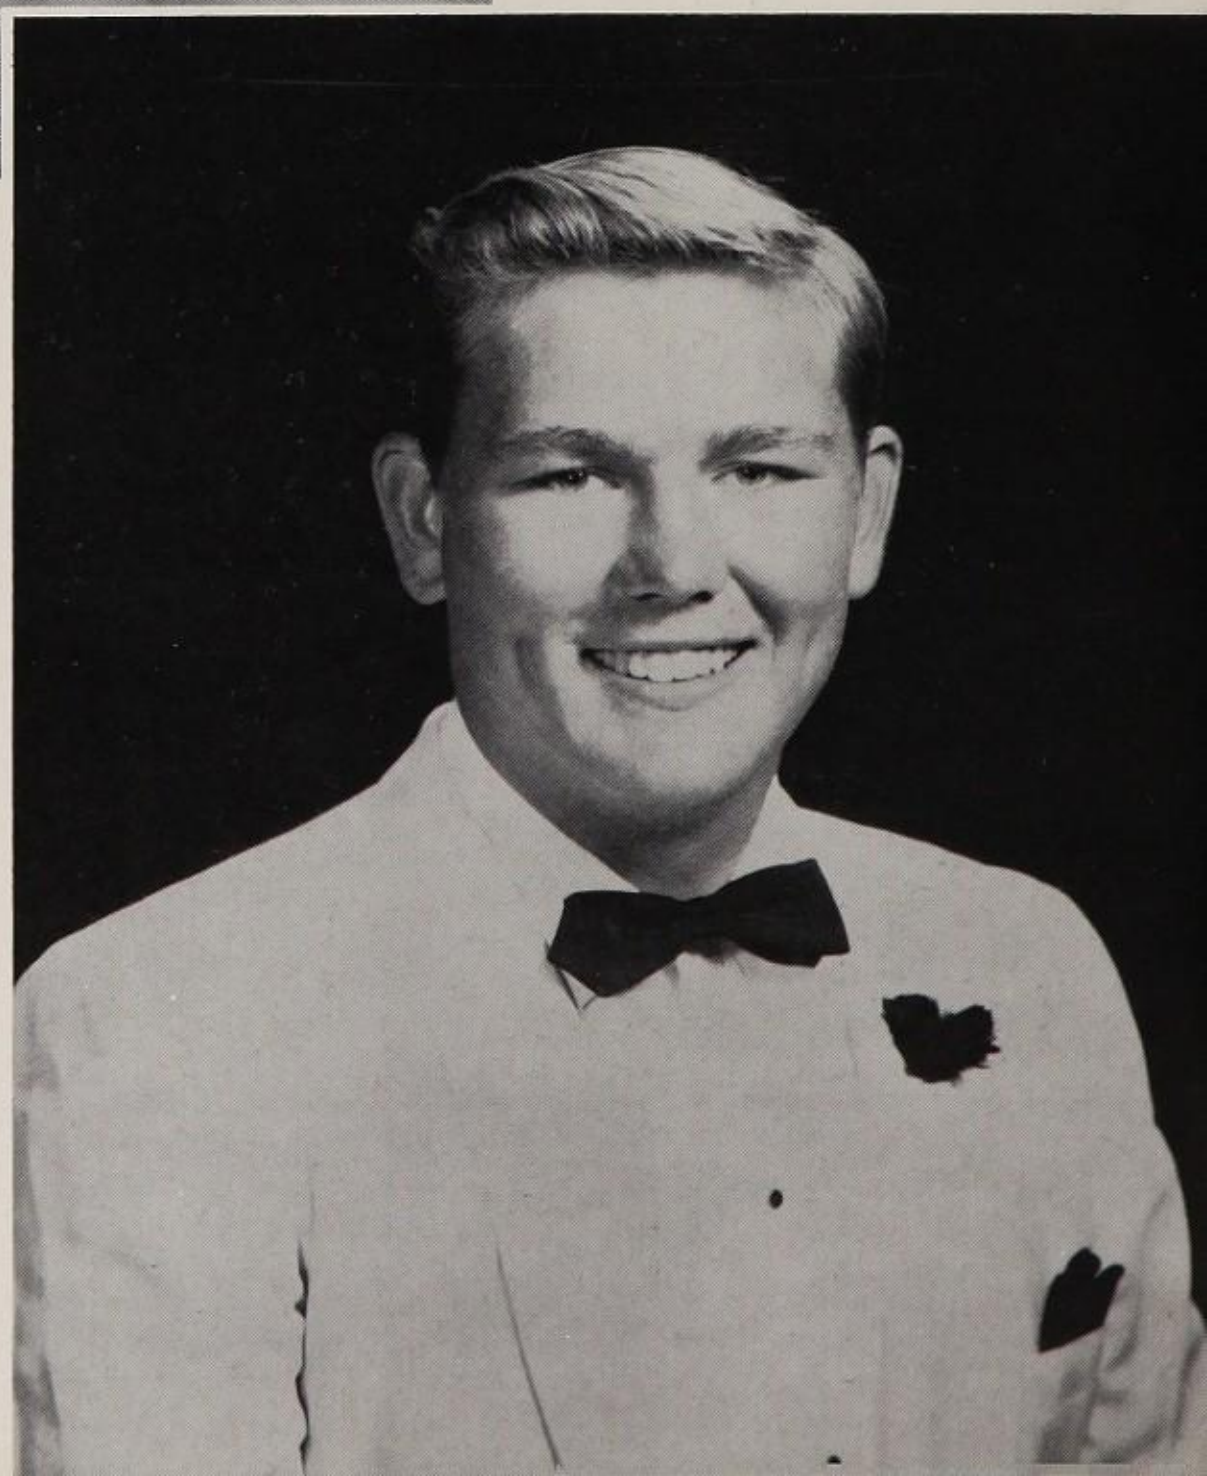

CARY FINDLAY . . . It seems odd to thank a boy who enjoyed every minute he slaved for what was best for Gables, but here it is. Thanks.

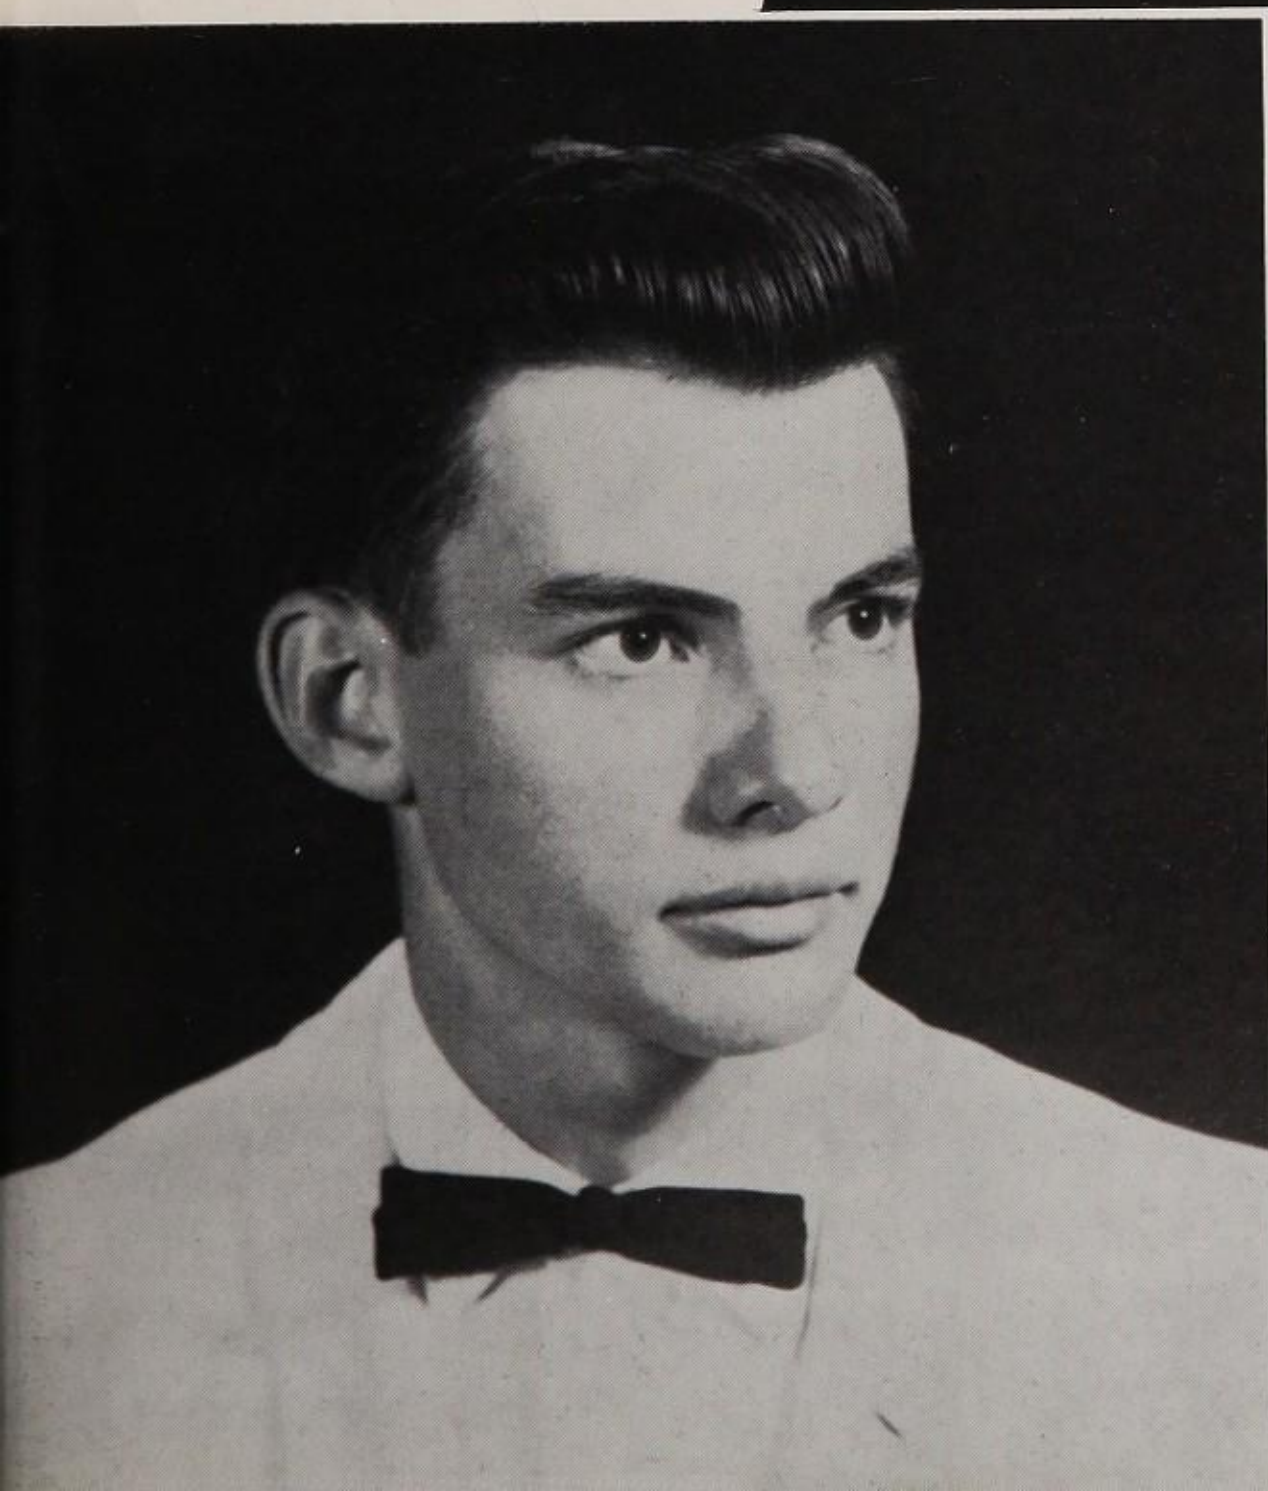

ALMALEE CARTEE . . . How can anyone be all the things she is and still be so beautiful?

JON GABLE . . . one of the big reasons for the Big Ten trophy at Gables this year.

BUNNY CEFALU . . . We think this class would never have graduated if she hadn't worked so hard for it.

CARL GEORGE . . . science was his major interest but he kept well-balanced by an amazing number of other interests.

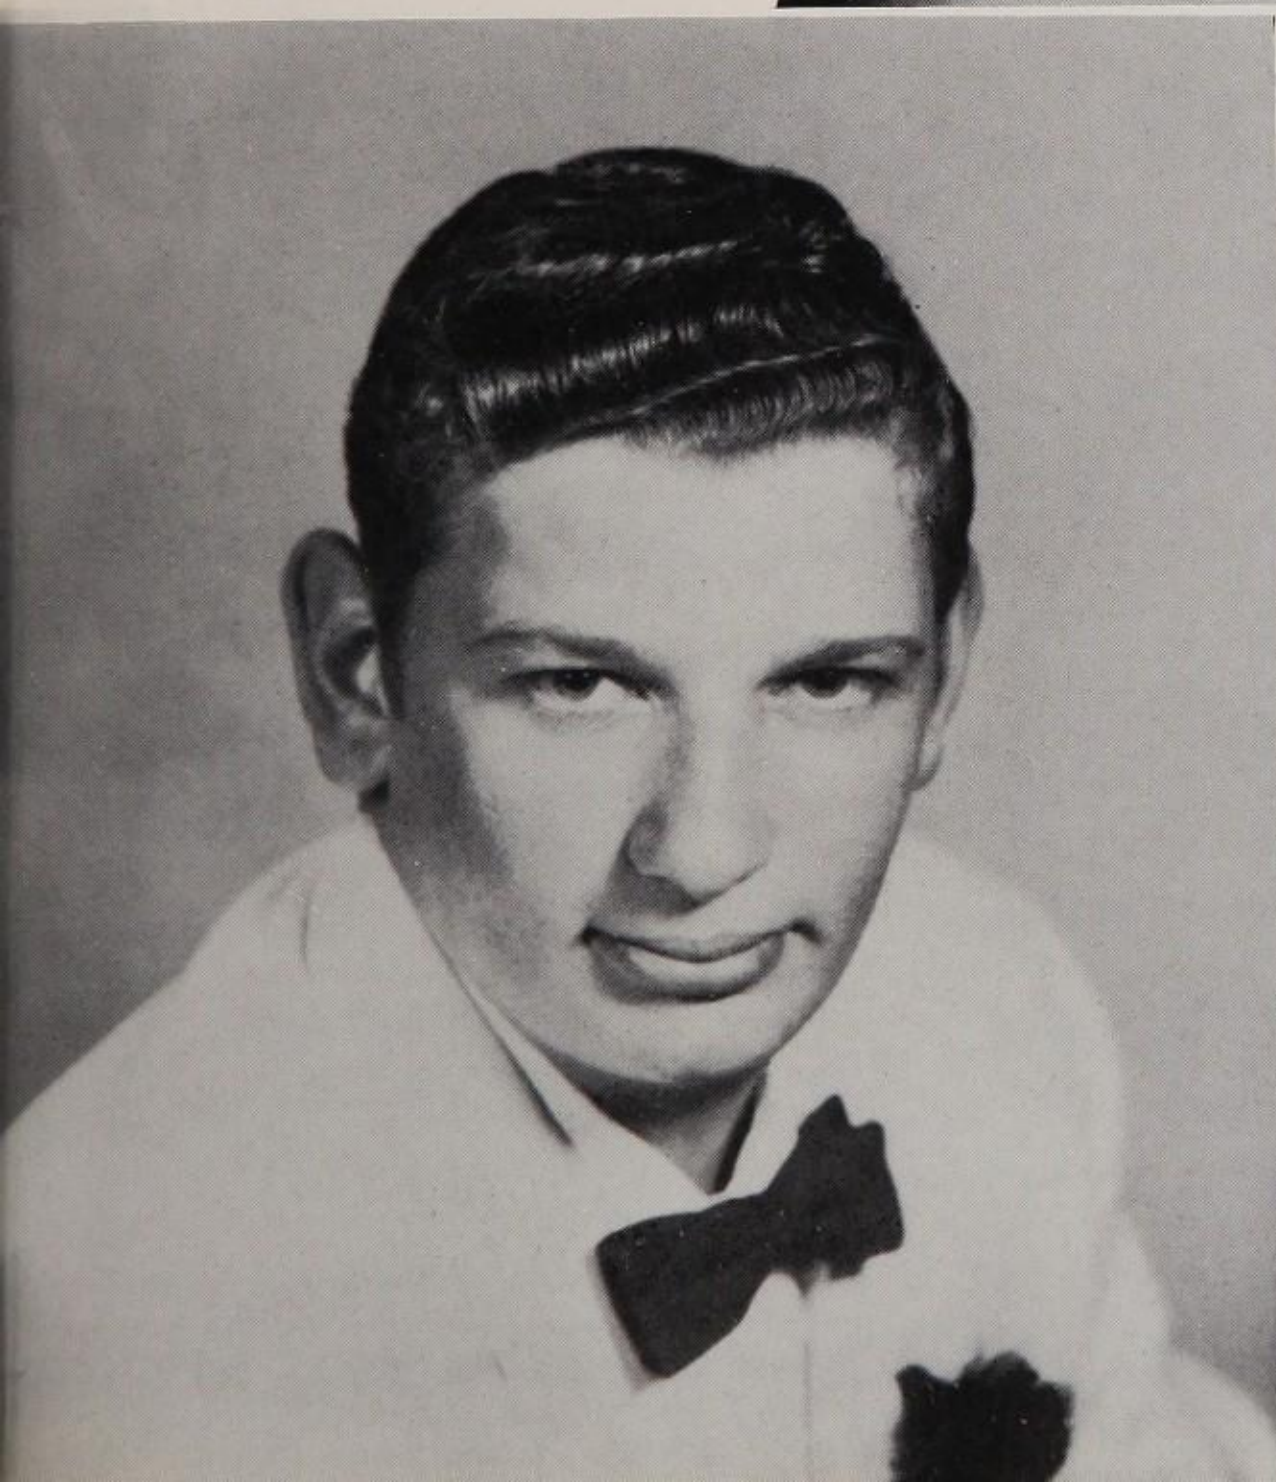

BETTY ANN COOKE . . . the journalist with the smile who ran organizations' beat and wrote the Cavern script and so many other things . . . all well.

BILL HEATON . . . He came from Texas, he conquered Gables. He's tops with us.

SALLIE CREEL . . . writer plus Mardi Gras Queen, and oh so much more.

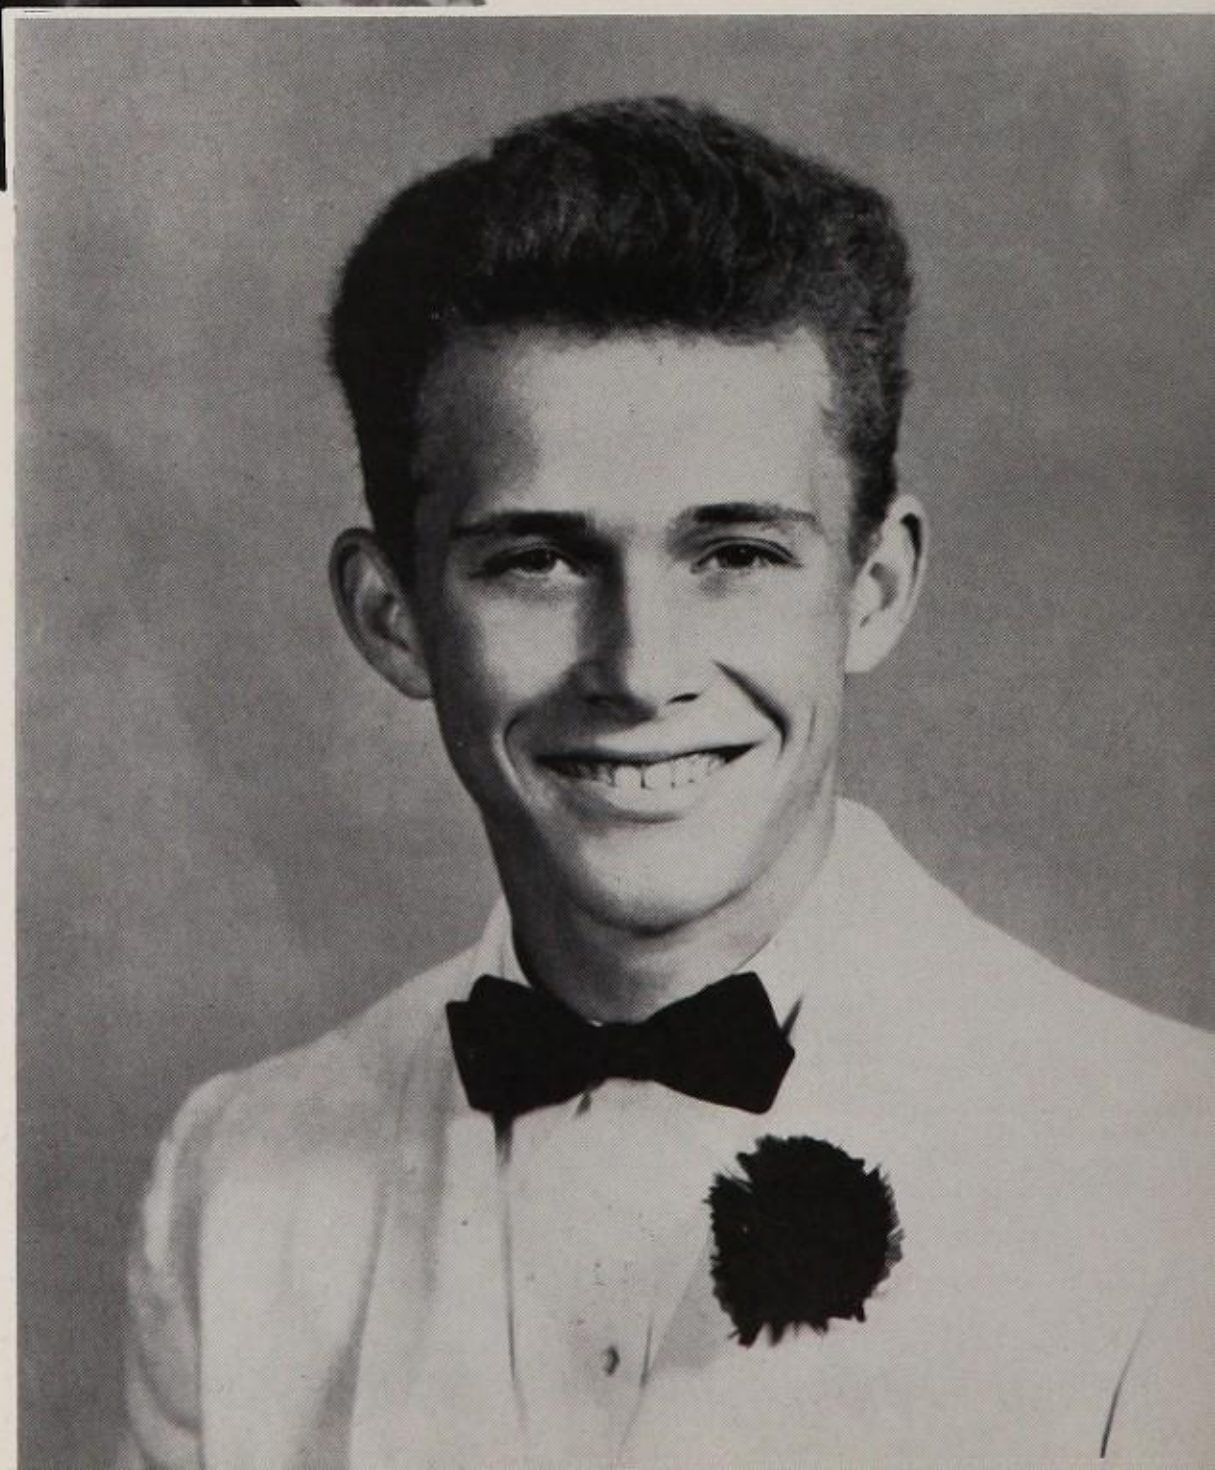

SCOOP KACHER . . . sports. He knows there are other teams around but Gables is his first love. His typewriter clicked faithfully as the varsity brought us victories.

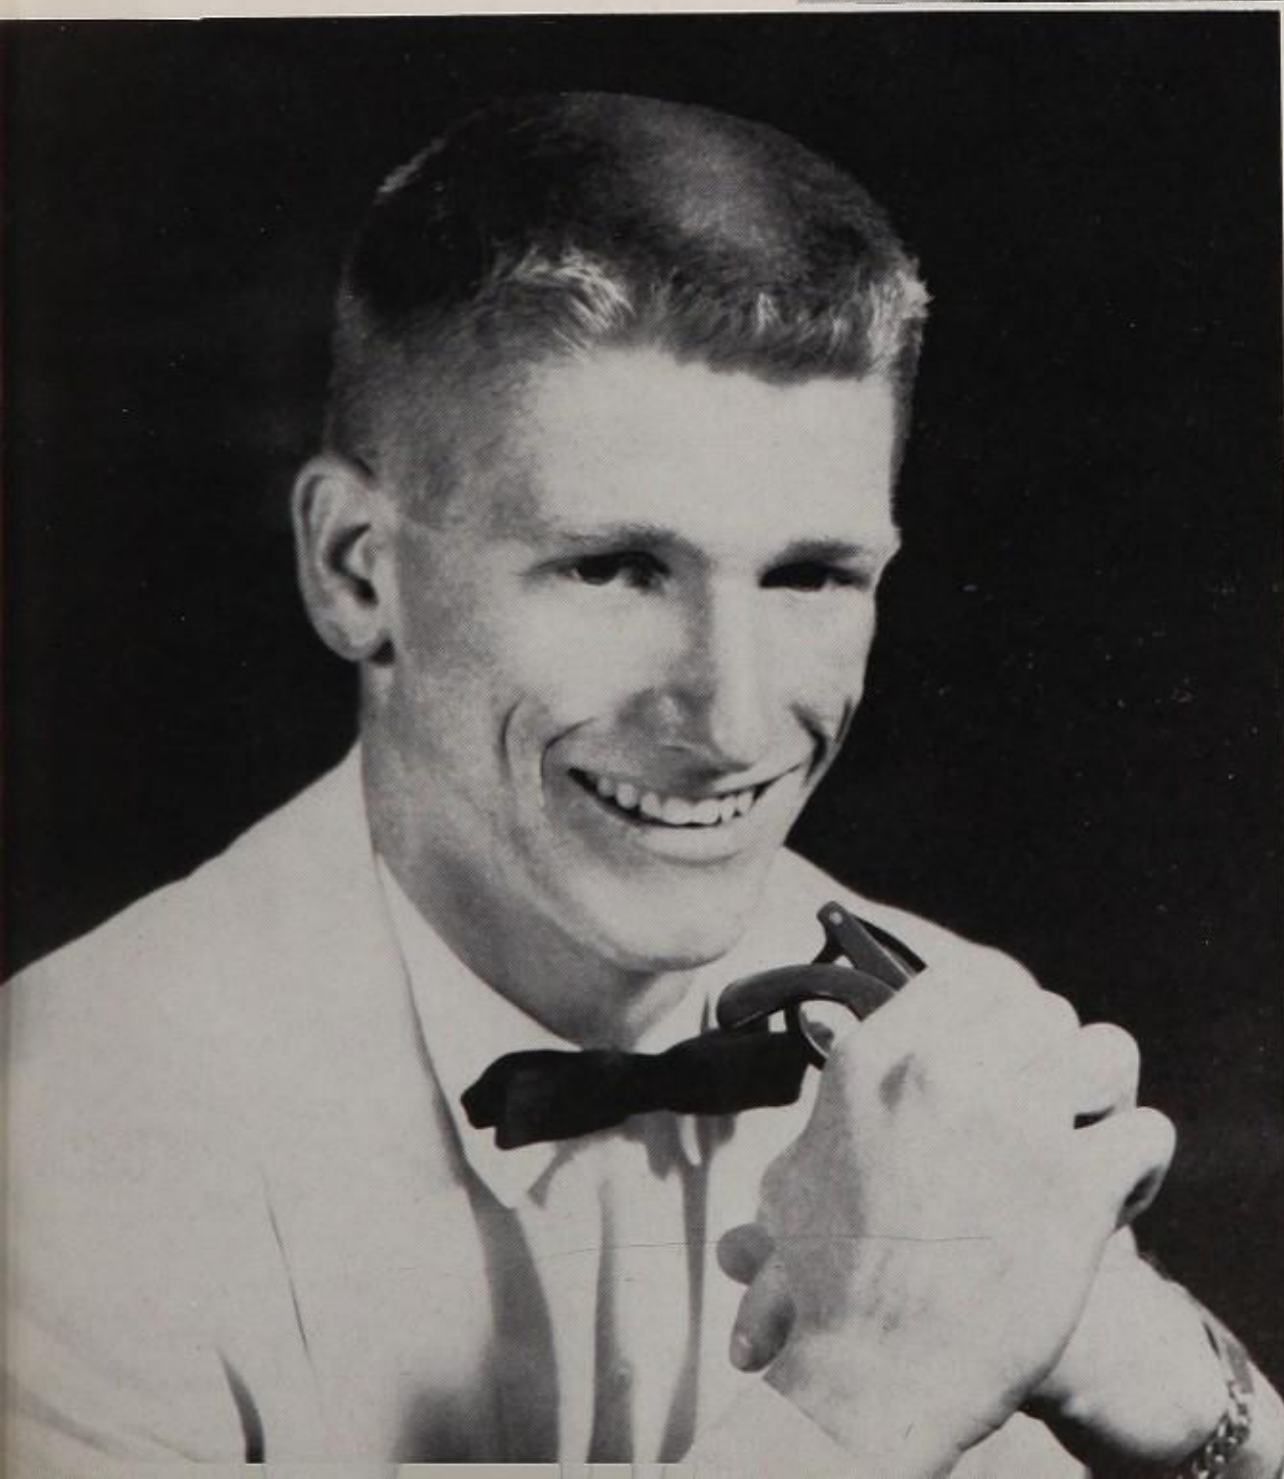

BETSY GODARD . . . the Dean's office was the main arena of her duties which she quietly and smilingly fulfilled.

GENE KRENSON . . . We suspected he was a genius. The National Merit exams proved it.

MARCIA HARSHBARGER . . . great wit and great trombonist . . . we could go on almost endlessly about this girl.

JIM LOWRY . . . for his serious devotion to Gables, we salute him.

LAURA KAVALLIR . . . twinkle toes with eyes accordingly. Our productions were enhanced by her activity.

BOB MACY . . . tennis and student activities, smoothly accomplished to spectacular success.

SUSAN KNIGHT . . . iron fist, velvet glove . . . that's how she got the copy out by deadline.

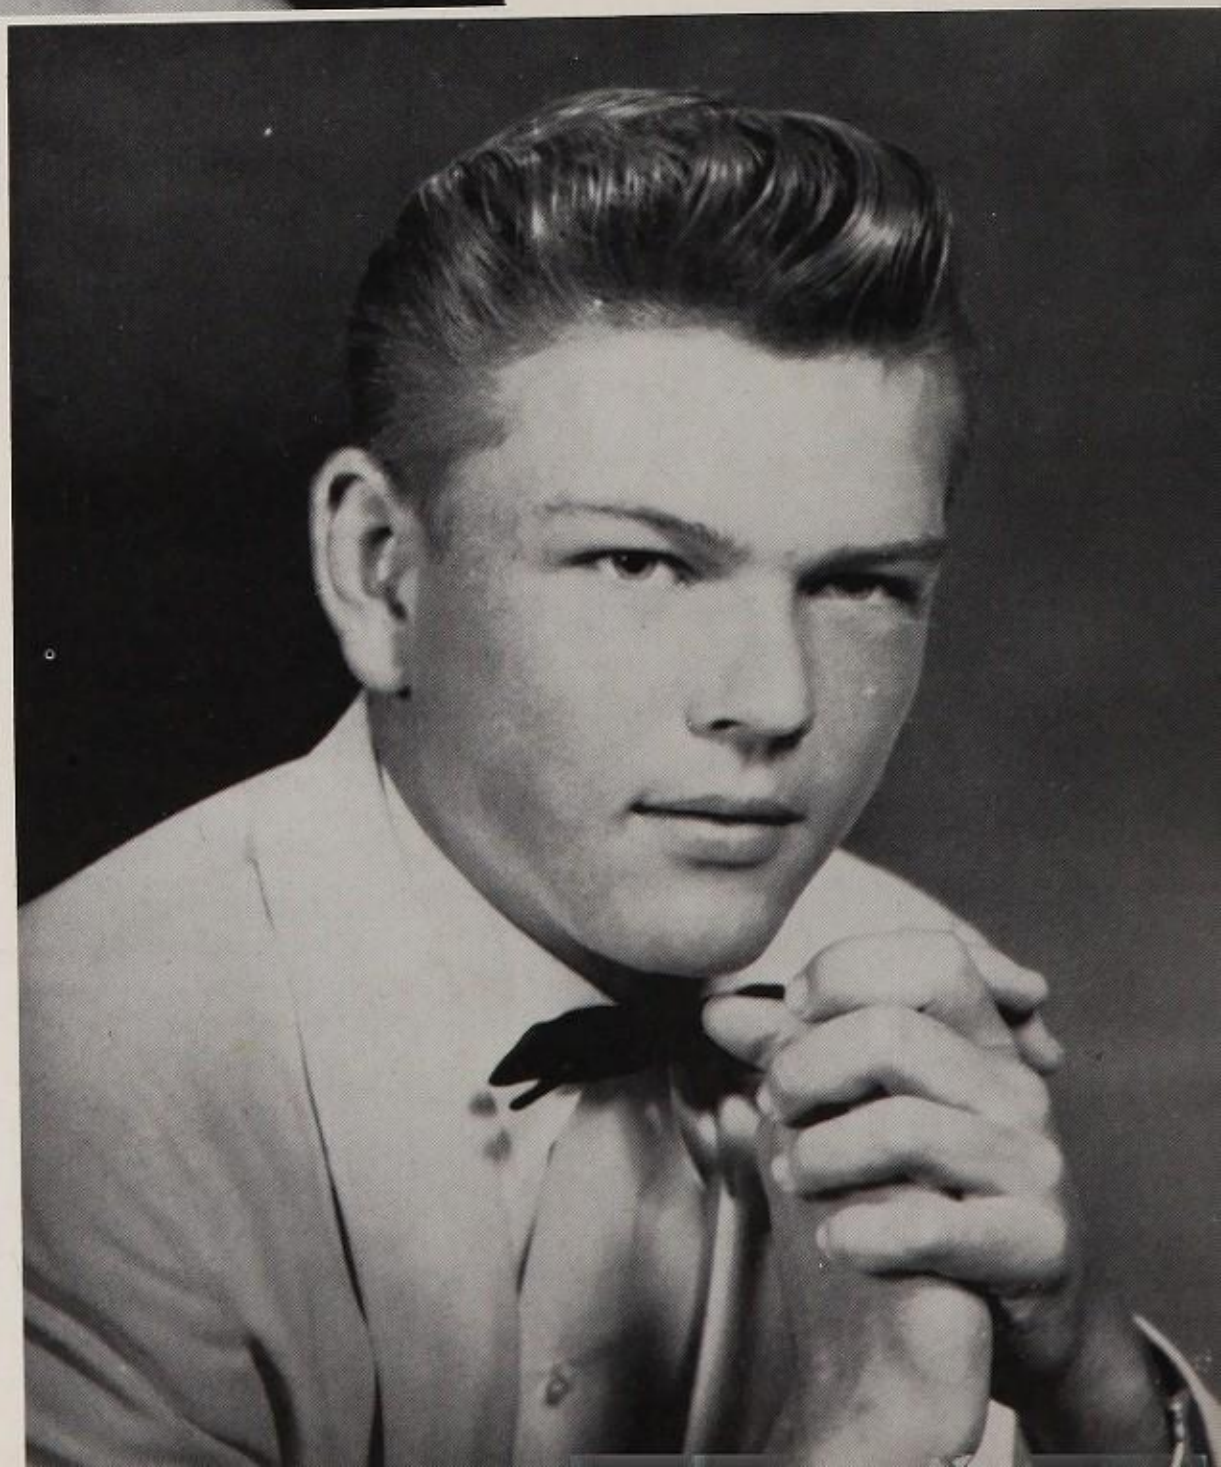

DICK MURPHY . . . Hollywood appearance but Gables outlook. He worked hard and happily for everything that would make ours the School of Distinction.

JUDY KOTYS . . . our smiling Cavali-ette captain.

LANE OVERSTREET . . . who was a big factor in making this a great year for Gables in athletics.

ROSEMARY LANEY . . . whose music has delighted us. Her's was top billing and rightly so.

WRIGHT PEARSON . . . music and brains . . . he reached the top in both fields.

SUE LEISER . . . her singing, her humor, made her one of the pleasant things about Gables these years.

CHARLES PORTER . . . There is a call for scientists today. Here's Gables' answer.

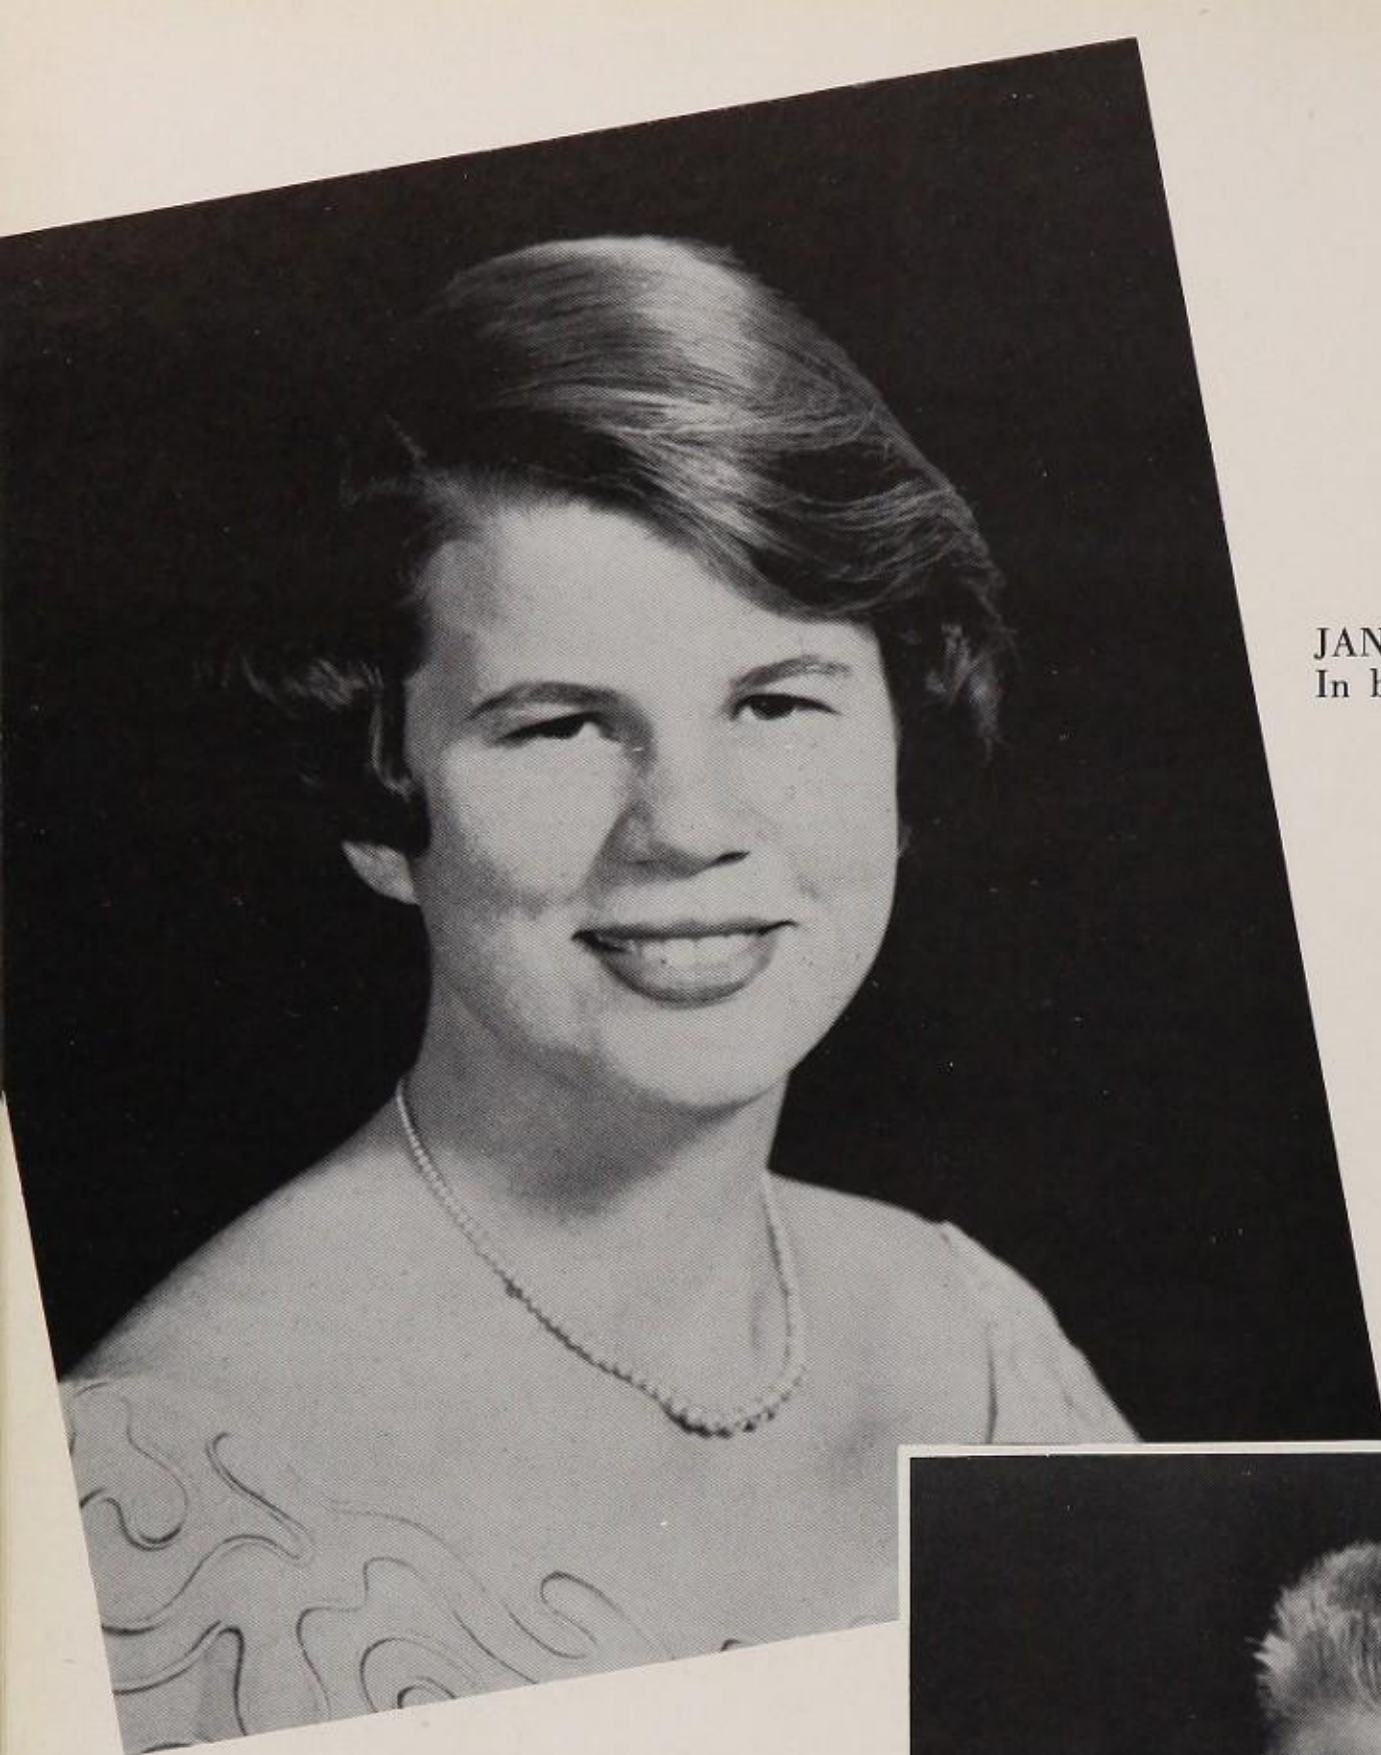

BETH McDONALD . . . We just couldn't add up all her honors . . . and she deserved every one.

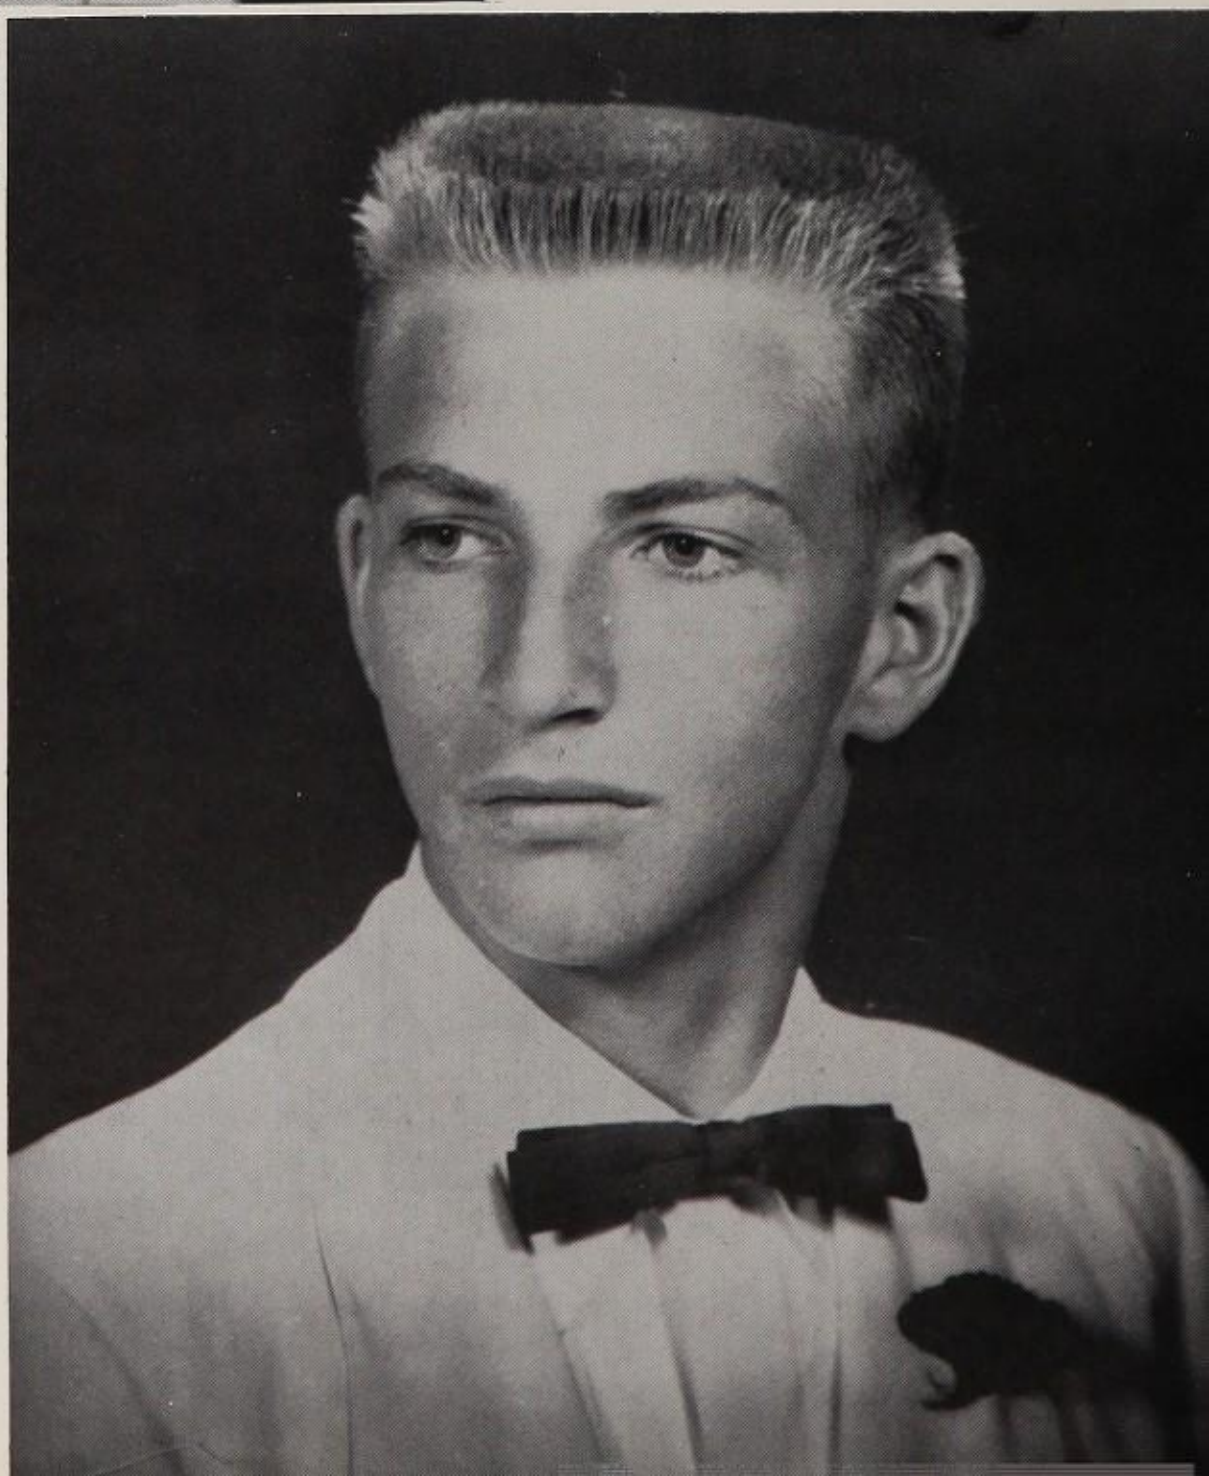

SKIPPY SAULS . . . We can't mention the Big Ten without bringing up his name but that isn't all . . . and it's all good.

JANET RENO . . . debater and scholar.
In both, extraordinary.

SAM SKOGSTAD . . . nationally seeded in tennis, universally liked in these parts.
Why cant' there be more like him?

GRETA SCHIPPER . . . what everybody says is true . . . she's great.

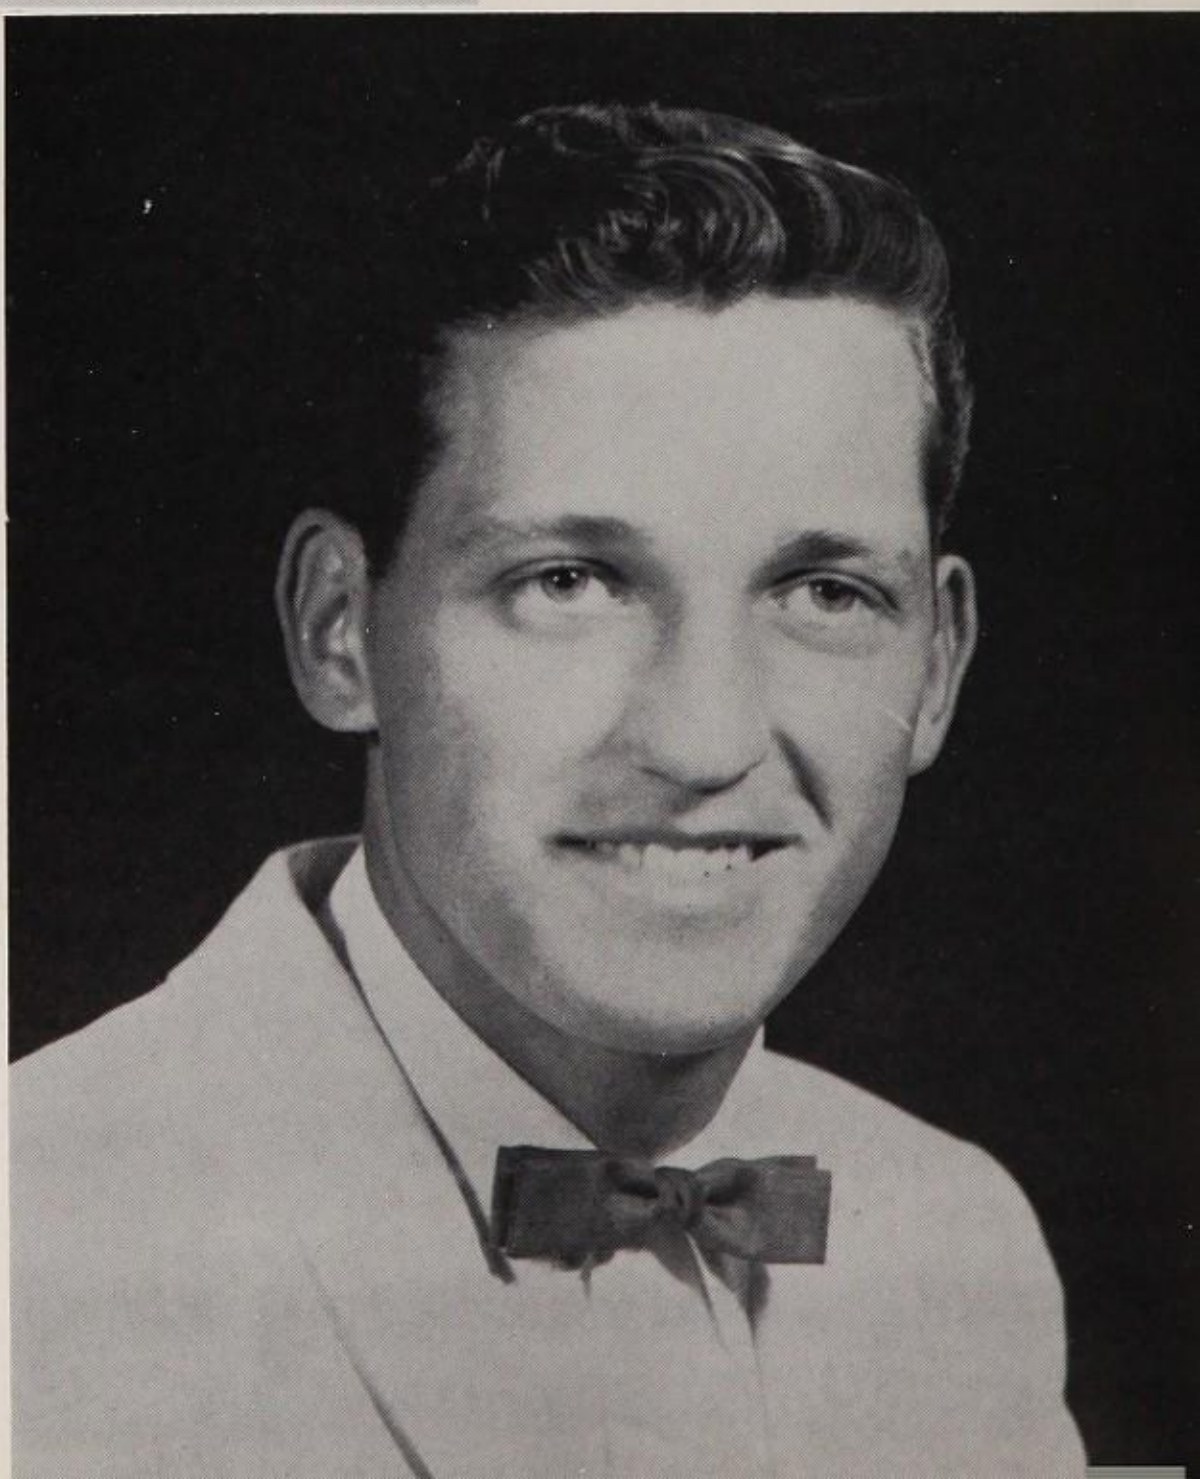

JERRY STAHL . . . who seemed to enjoy doing everything for Gables in his calm and efficient manner.

LYDIA SWEARINGEN . . . devoted to her student government duties and delightful to work with.

MICKEY STEFAN . . . He's proud of his Gables blanket. We're proud of how he won it.

ELLEN TAAFFE . . . concert mistress and . . . isn't she lovely?

BILL SUTTON . . . the committee member who served and worked but, we think, mostly worked.

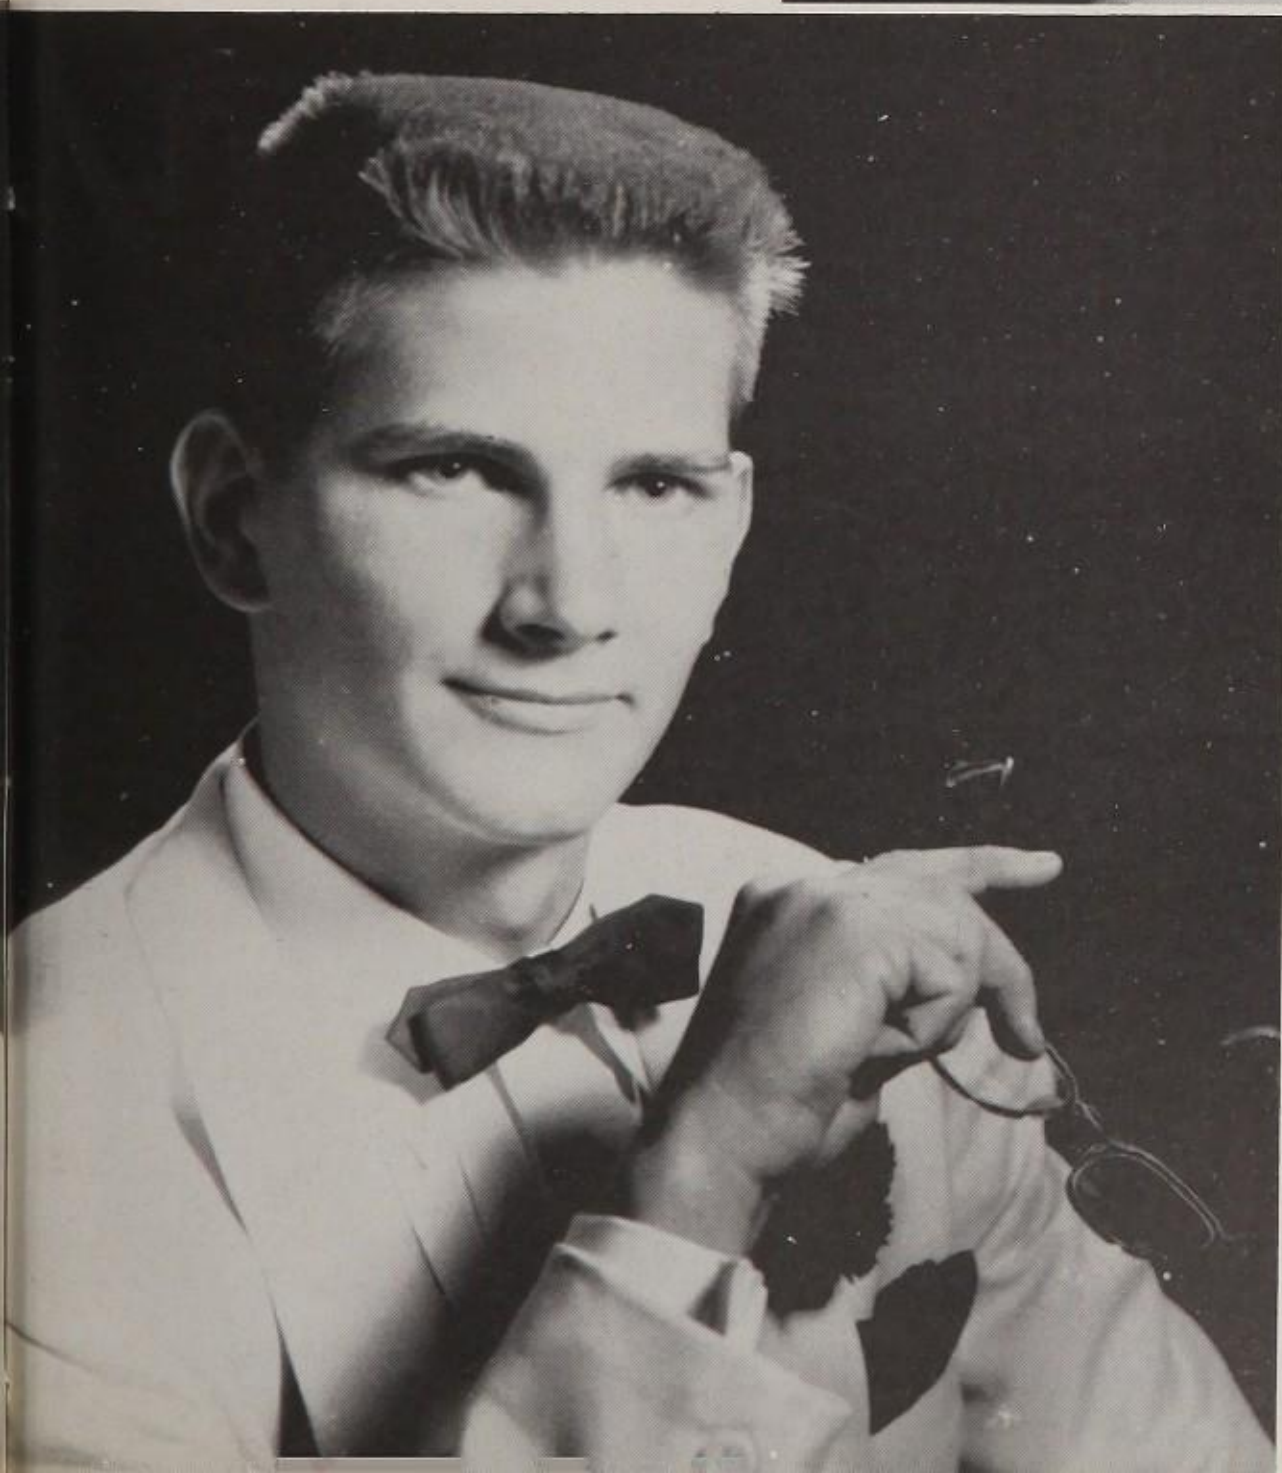

PAT USSERY . . . journalist and Student Council dynamo and she never forgot to grin.

CHUCK THAGARD . . . wit, entertainer, class executive and still modest. Salute!

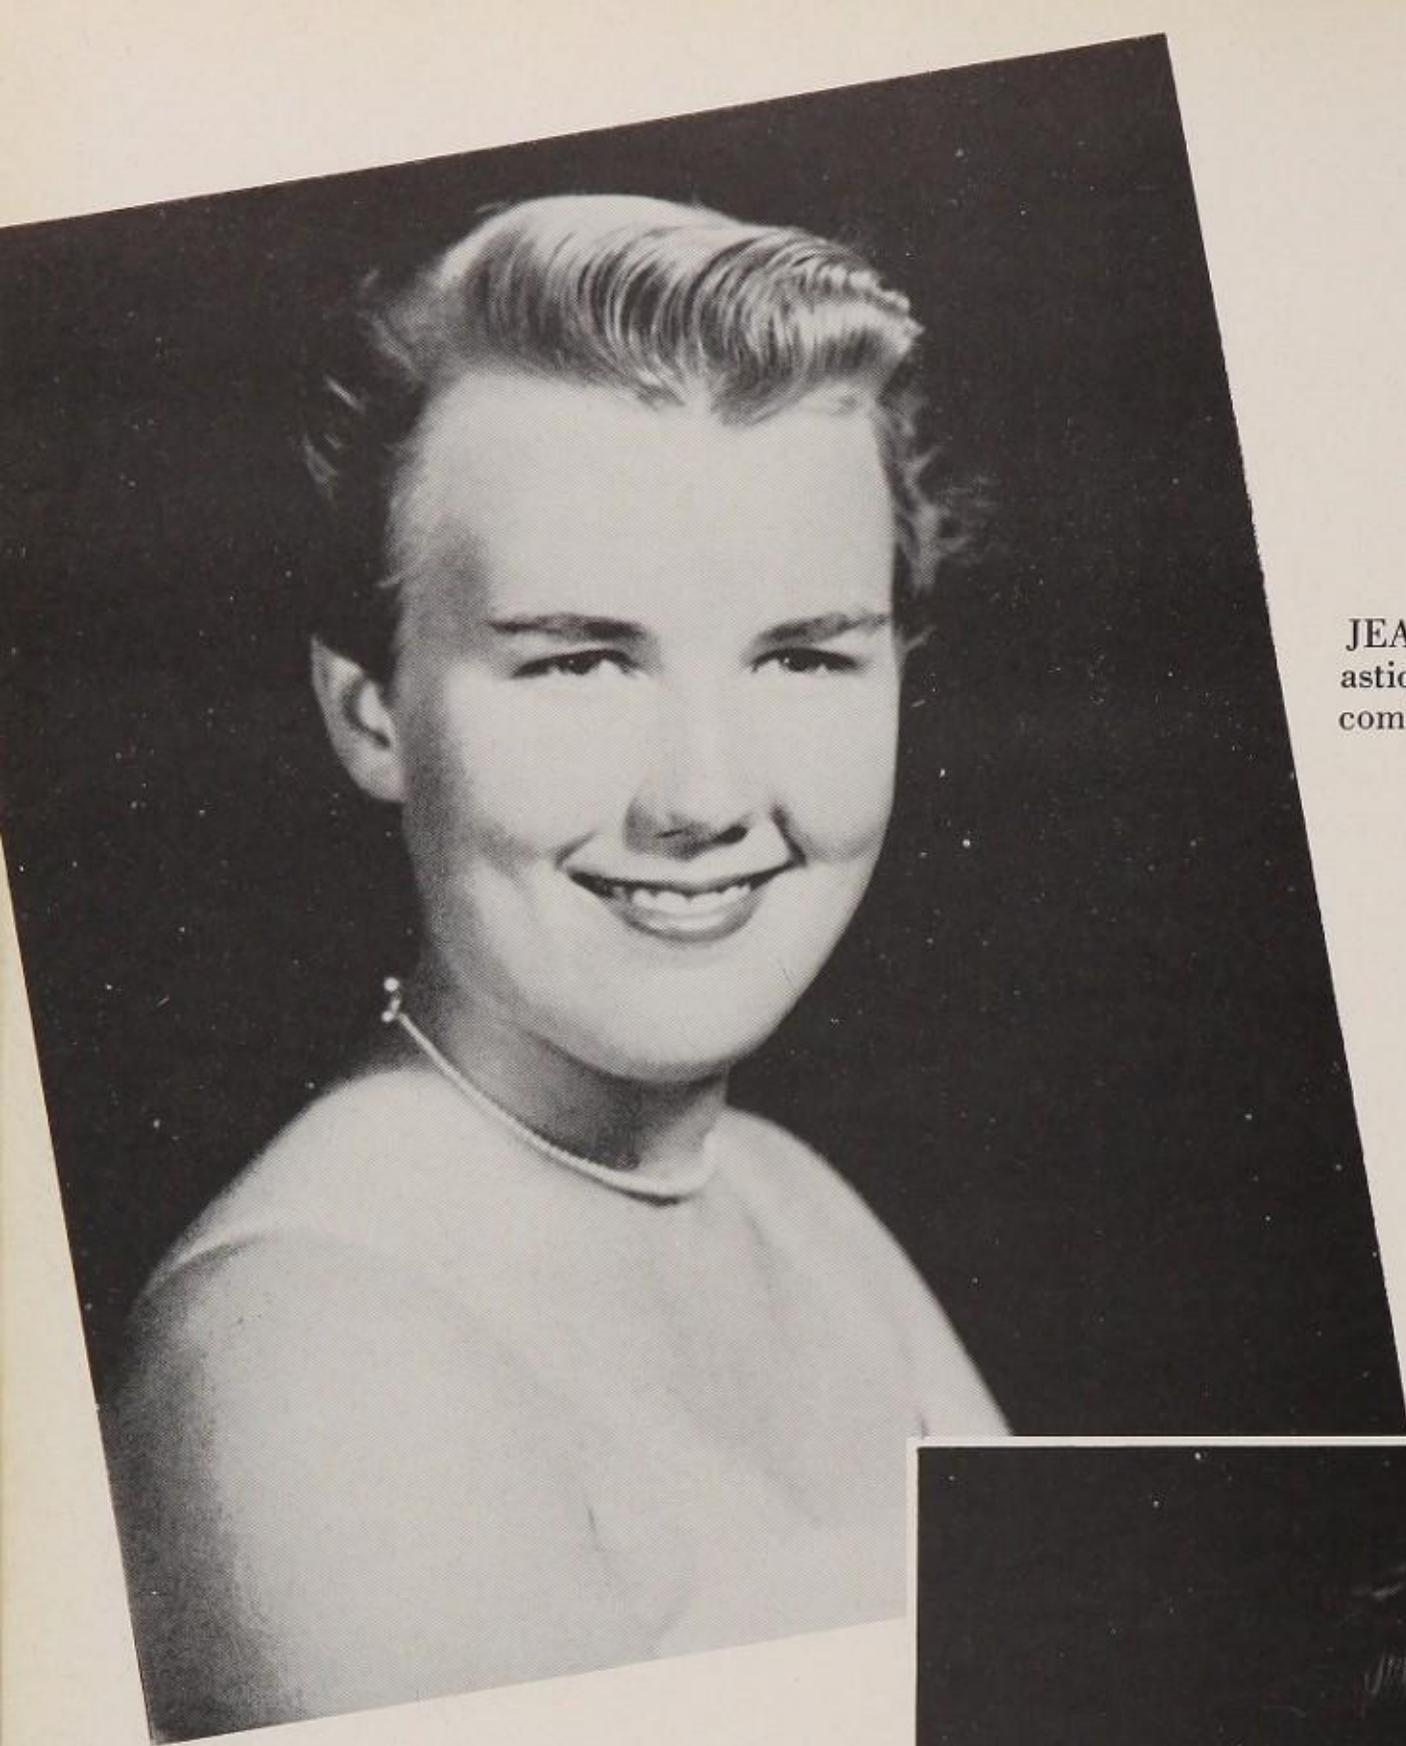

JOANN WOLTZ . . . editor, girls' nation . . . we could go on endlessly . . . all in superlatives.

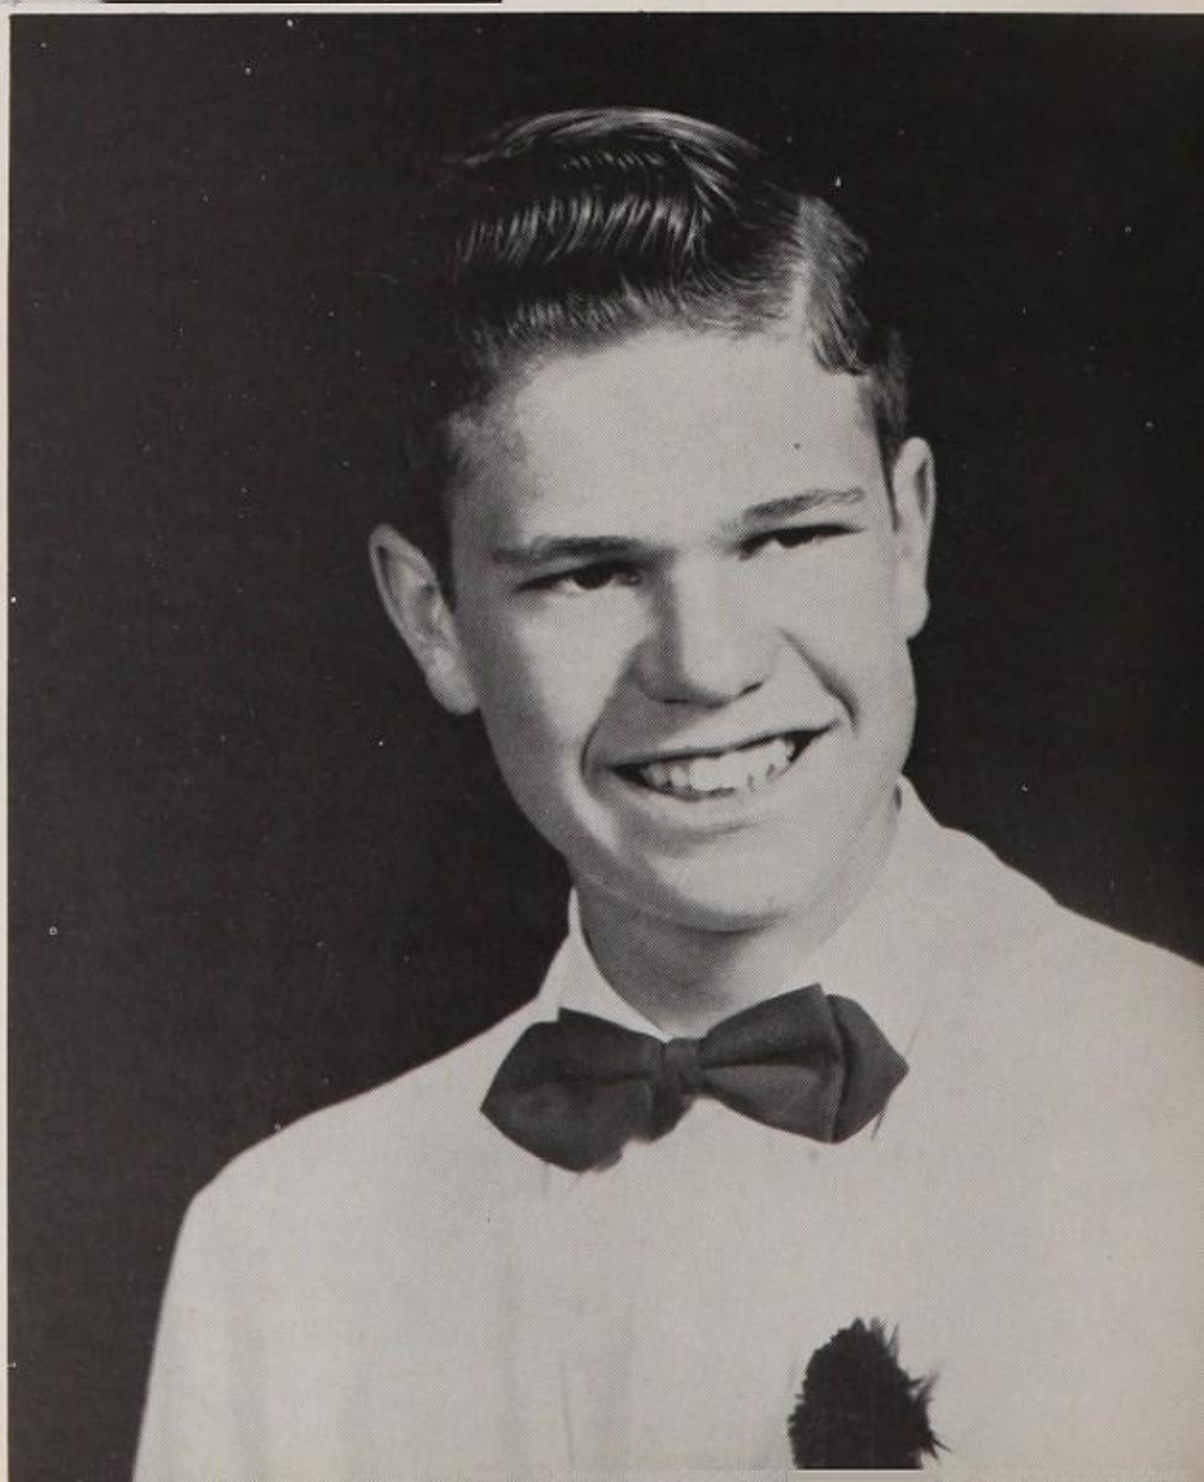

CHUCK VIRGIN . . . Allied Youth came to fine heights under his direction.

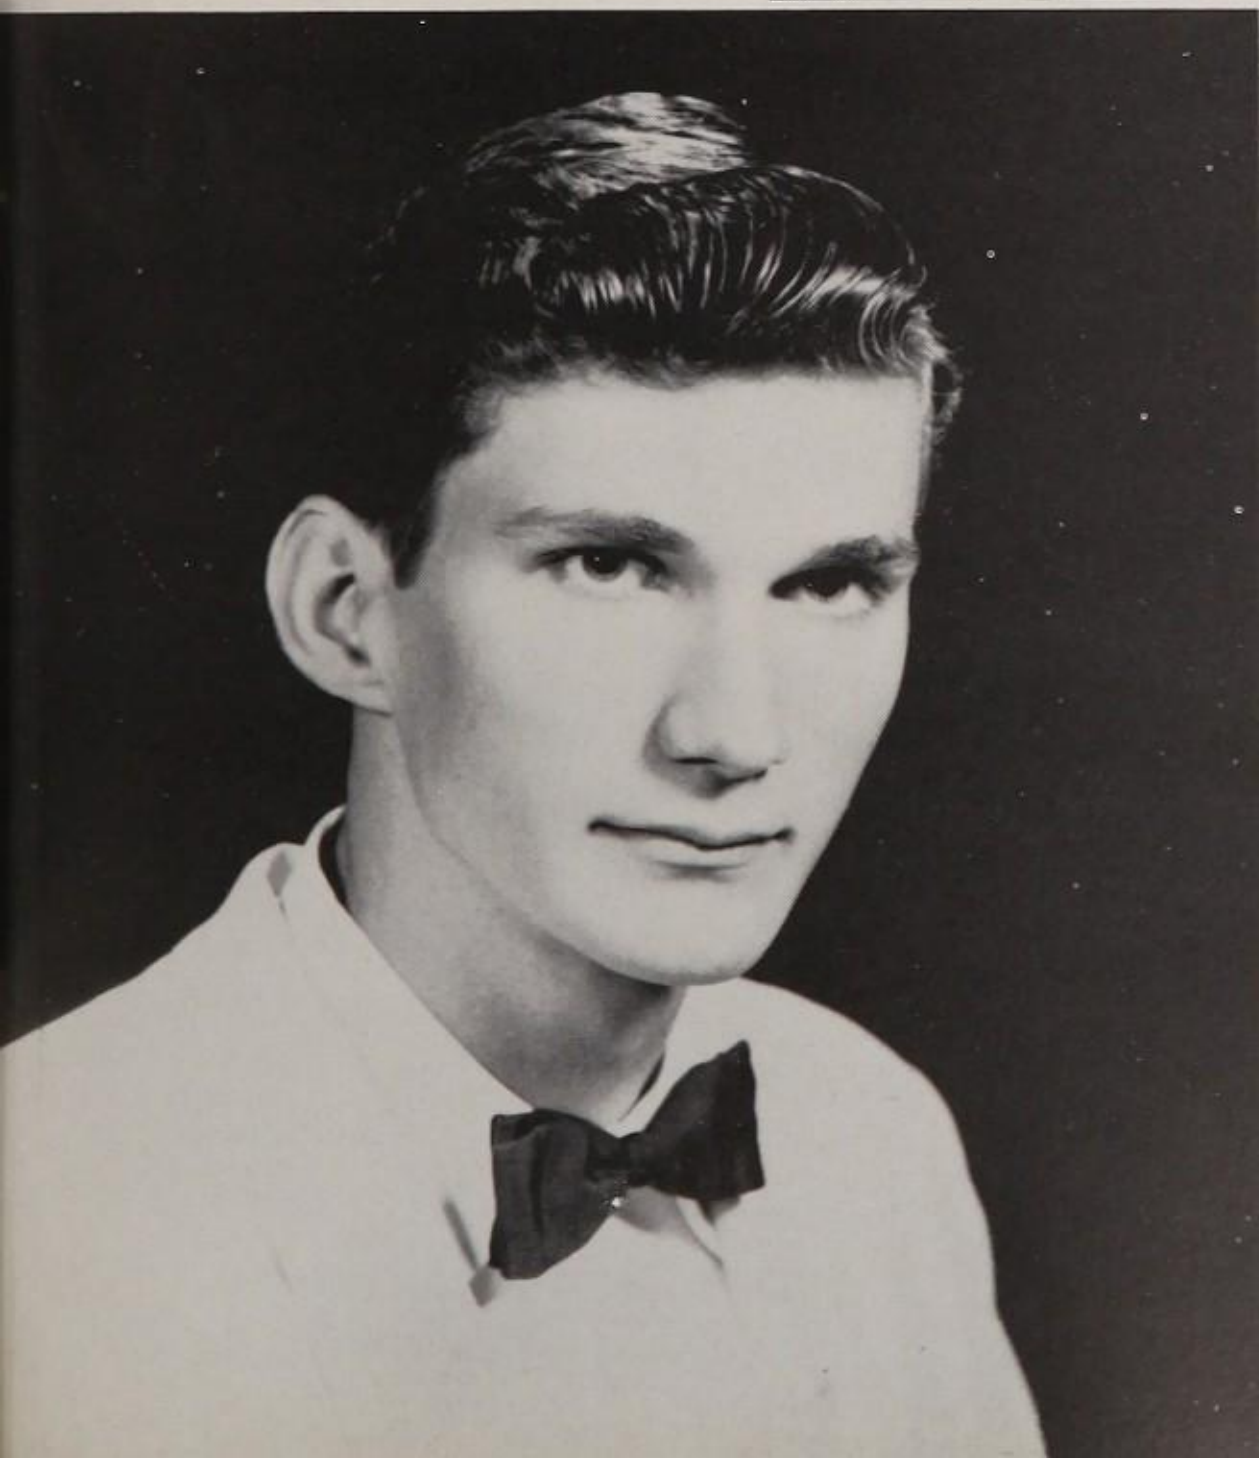

JEAN YOUNG . . . swimming and scholastic records . . . both tops . . . a rare combination.

BILL WOODIN . . . the voice is golden, the manner is suave, but mostly . . . this boy is 100 percent in everyone's book.

MRS. MARGUERITE CLEVELAND . . . senior class sponsor, who has patted and nudged but never pushed us, to make us live up to her idea that we are the greatest class ever. We salute her with deeply felt love and devotion.

BUDDY WOODS . . . Student Council was his work and pleasure.

THE LAST WORD

This is D-Day for CAVALEON, the deadline for sending final copy to the publisher. This day is one that we have dreamed about, feared, yet never really believed would arrive.

The theme of CAVALEON 1956 is the trees of South Florida and especially the Royal Poinciana that we have used on the end sheets. The cover was chosen to reflect the wonderful color of the Poinciana blossoms. You may never have really noticed our trees but we hope that, when you go away to school, a look through CAVALEON will be as good as a letter from home.

When you leaf through this book you will have no idea how many people worked on it. However, I know that it would never have been possible to meet this last deadline without a lot of hard, determined work on the part of the staff nor without the wide range of courteous assistance and cooperation that has been given us. First of all we are deeply indebted to the Administration and Faculty who graciously gave us every facility of the school and made our jobs much easier. We especially want to thank Mr. Harry N. Rath for believing that if it was for CAVALEON it was all right, Mrs. Louise Stewart, Mrs. Marguerite Cleveland, and Mr. Edward F. Cook.

We would like to acknowledge the courtesy of Dean Owrie of the University of Miami who loaned us the owl that graces the Honoraries section. And we have cause to be grateful for the professional assistance of Mr. Ronald Thibideau who took some magnificent pictures for CAVALEON.

CAVALEON for 1956 contains a record on which have been captured forever the outstanding events of the school year. This has been the project of Mr. Edwin T. Cook, of the Music Department, Betty Ann Cooke, Charles Thagard and Scoop Kacher. These four have worked long hours developing this idea in deepest secrecy.

The name CAVALEON puzzles many people until they remember that the yearbook was first published when the high school was Ponce de Leon. Our sports team were then, as they are now, the Cavaliers. CAVALEON, a combination of Cavaliers and Ponce de Leon, made the transition to Coral Gables Senior High School and serves as a reminder of our school's history.

We, the staff and assistants of CAVALEON 1956, have worked with two goals in mind, the immediate one of meeting the deadline and the long range goal of producing the best possible yearbook. As we meet the last deadline we can only hope that our second goal is achieved too, and that you will like CAVALEON 1956. In any case, we owe an enormous debt to Mrs. Chris Steers for inspiration, patience, and fortitude.

Dear Little Ole' Ed.:

You just carry on high with all your fine phrases and who all helped with what. We are thankful too, but too darned tired to elaborate on the idea.

We are fed to the teeth with trees, trees, trees, trees, trees and who knows the location of a good desert island?

Now that March 15th (the Ides of, etc. . . .) has been, it's going to be rather fun to get to know our families again. (Just getting out of the sweatshop of 508 is something!) Also we look like fresh arrivals from the North. Oh! To be in the sun again. Do people still swim at Crandon Park? Are there still beach parties? Tennis, anyone?

Today we hate, with a violence, everyone connected with journalism but, we would not have missed a minute of it, nor a nasty crack from Mrs. (Simon Legree) Steers. It has been real!!!! And we wonder if (say after the Cavern) Mrs. Steers might smile at us again? We can hear your answer, Dear, only if she forgets what we didn't do.

When we have forgotten all your advice on copy, pictures, and so on, we will still remember how to turn the heel of a sock and to reply to a love letter.

See you at the Cavern!!! You'll know us . . . we're the ones with the pointed heads,

Bloody but unbowed,
The Staff

P.S. "We think that we shall never see a yearbook lovely as a tree."

Parents of Arner, Galbreath, Cooke and Casey fake helpful pose.

We had an idea . . . It seemed impossible . . . It was something new and different . . . A yearbook with sound . . . Could it be done? . . . If so, How? . . . First, the script had to be written . . . Then the "Voice" had to be chosen . . . Bill Woodin was chosen to relive with feeling the important events of the school year . . . Then the actual recording began when Wally Ybanez and Bob Woolf from Fidelity Sound arrived . . . Two days of "live" recording, and we became familiar with "mikes," cueing, timing, cutting and hi-fi, all that goes into the production of a record. We'd really hit the big time . . . We worked with the greatest . . . Edwin T. Cook and his band . . . Millard Walker and the chorus . . . Chris Steers, head of publications . . . And of course our partner in crime, "Scoop" Katcher . . . At times the going was rough . . . And it was hard to keep it secret with so many prying questions . . . But with those final words: "Hail to thee, our Alma Mater" . . . We knew it was worth it . . . And we were proud because it was no longer just an idea, it was a reality . . . We'd given birth to the first Gables High record.

With Bob Woolf at the awe inspiring controls, with Scoop Kacher giving advice and, perhaps, comfort we caught the recording editors in action. Standing, Chuck Thagard, (pretending to read the script that he already knows by heart), Wally Ybanez, (recording expert from Fidelity Sound), Chris Steers wondering when she would ever have time for that long awaited nervous breakdown, Ed Cook with ears keyed for a sour note—which, incidentally, he did not find, Bill Woodin still wearing that fixed smile that goes with that soothing voice and Betty Ann Cooke wondering why she ever started this—sleeping pills are such a much easier way to go. The Band of Distinction in the background was still playing. After 93 tries they got so in the habit of playing that they just played on and on and on and on.
